SENATE SUSTAINS PRESIDENT BUT IS "GAGGED" IN DOING IT

Republican Senators Protest When They Are Not Allowed to Explain Their Votes.

NEW RESOLUTION BOBS UP

Gore Unexpectedly Introduces One
Asking Sinking of Armed Ships
be Cause For War.

MANY SENATORS CHANGE VOTE

Senator Sherman Terms Senate Action "Cowardice, Evasion, Cring-
ing," Borah "Degredation."

(By United Press.)

Washington, March 3.—The senate today formally gave notice to the world that it would stand behind President Wilson in his negotiations with Germany. By a vote of 68 to 44 the senate voted down a substitute resolution introduced by Senator Gore.

The action was taken without debate being allowed. Just ten minutes after the fight on the resolution began, Vice-president Marshall announced the vote.

By the single roll call the senate swept aside all amendments and resolutions hampering the president. By motion they were all included.

Those who voted against tabling the resolution, thereby voting to take the international situation out of the hands of the president were: Borah, Chamberlain, Clapp, Cummins, Fall, Galliger, Gronna, Jones, LaFollette, McCumber, Norris, O'Gorman, Sherman and Works. Senator Kern voted to uphold the president.

Senator Borah protested vigorously against "gagging" the senate when he was not allowed to present reasons for his vote.

There were several congressmen who held the view that by today's action the senate gave the president full power in foreign negotiations even up to the point of war.

Senator James called up Senator Gore's resolution. Gore offered an amendment asking that the sinking of an armed ship by a German submarine should be deemed cause for war with Germany.

The vote for the president, including as it did those of Gore and Stone, was the result of the amendment. Gore's surprising and unexplained eleventh hour move when offering what was practically a new resolution and an ultimatum to the central powers, caused several to change their vote. Many who favored Gore's original resolution voted to kill the substitute.

The vote itself came with practically no debate, but pent up oratory burst forth a little later, when the senate theoretically was discussing a water power bill. Most of it was a statement of doubt as to exactly what the senate had done in its vote. Republican senators bitterly commented on the fact that the senate had been "gagged" and no opportunity given to vote on the merits of Gore's measure.

The senate rules require immediate vote and no discussion, on such a motion. The vote went through as per schedule but the storm burst later.

Borah termed the senate action "degradation." Sherman termed it "cowardice evasion cringing."

The actual vote came up on Gore's substitute resolution.

President Wilson received word of the senate's action while the cabinet was in session. All of the officials

Wilson Pleased

Washington, March 3.—It was stated at the White House this afternoon that the proposition submitted to the senate today and the vote taken thereon, met with its entire approval.

expressed satisfaction over the result and believe that it is a forecast of what the house will do when a vote is taken in that branch.

Efforts to keep the United States out of a foreign conflict, to which it has been nearer during the last few days than any time since the days of McKinley, reached their climax today when the senate met to give notice to the world—and especially to Germany—that a united congress and nation stands behind President Wilson.

The fight in the senate over killing Senator Gore's warning resolution opened at 11:25 o'clock when Senator Stone called it up.

Senate support of the president by a vote of nearly three to one seemed assured from the very first. The house will also go on record, favoring the president, possibly tomorrow, but probably by a smaller vote.

Action without talk, was the program decided on at a final conference of senate leaders just before the senate opened.

Fully recognizing the opposition they would find in the senate settling any issue without giving each senator an opportunity to express his views, they determined nevertheless not to risk starting what might develop into a typical, drawn-out senate debate.

The program was simply to table the Gore resolution.

There was to be no resolution endorsing the president. The leaders held that by tabling the principal resolution of opposition, they would have erased from the senate records any hint that the body was not behind the president.

GERMANS CAPTURE DOUAUMONT TOWN

Take One Thousand Allies After Furious Struggle, Berlin
Announces.

DRIVING TOWARDS VERDUN

(By United Press.)

London, March 3.—German troops have captured the village of Douaumont, four miles northeast of Verdun and just outside Fort Douaumont after a furious struggle, taking one thousand prisoners, the German war office announced this afternoon.

Renewing their offensive with heavy blows, the Germans are driving towards Verdun west and southwest of Douaumont, it is reported. German fliers have bombarded the city and German infantry is attempting to cut off the French holding Pepper Heights to the north. The French war office admitted that the Tuetons have penetrated the French lines at Douaumont, after suffering "cruel losses," but declaring the struggle for the village is continuing.

MORE WORK FOR ELECTION BOARD

Will Have to Appoint Nineteen
Judges Lacking in List of Progressive Appointments.

CHAIRMAN NAMES ONLY 12

If Judges Can't Find Progressives,
it is a Question Just What
They Should do.

The board of election commissioners with all its onerous duties will have the additional task of selecting nineteen Progressive judges, if they can be found, to serve at the primary next Tuesday. The list of Progressive judges as filed late last night by Lester Smith, county chairman, was short just nineteen of the judges this party is entitled to under the law.

Under the law the Progressives are entitled to a judge at each precinct. When Smith filed his list it was found that only twelve precincts were represented. Whether he failed to find enough Progressives to fill out the list or did not have the necessary time, was not made known. He handed the list to Clerk Taylor as that official was leaving the court house last night and stated that it was complete. Upon examination, the list was found to be nineteen short.

Yesterday was the last day under the law for filing the nominations for election officials with the board of commissioners. The law provides that in case the county chairman fails to make the selections, the board of election commissioners shall fill the list. The law also states that the board shall fill the list from members of that party. According to this, it is up to the election board to select nineteen Progressive judges, and this in itself will be no small job. Samuel L. Trabue, Democratic chairman, completed his list of election officers early yesterday afternoon. Both the Republicans and Democrats were careful not to select any member that was related to any candidates.

Just what the election board will do in case it fails to find the Progressive judges is not known. This question was to be taken up today by the board. At least one of the Progressive judges named by the county chairman is related to a candidate and is therefore disqualified. The Progressive judges are as follows:

Washington township, No. 1.—Fred A. Bills; No. 2.—Curtha Waggoner.

Center township, No. 1.—Glen H. Kirkham; No. 2.—Ed Retherford.

Union township, No. 1.—Eddie Myers; No. 2.—John F. Mapes.

Anderson township, No. 1.—Cash King.

Rushville township, No. 1.—Lester Smith; No. 3.—Wade Sherman; No. 5.

Joseph Mary, No. 7; Joe Endicott, No. 10; William F. Taylor.

The Democratic appointments are as follows:

Rushville.

No. 1.—Judge, Ed Billings; Clerk, Edward Lushel; Sheriff, George Fleener, Jr.

No. 2.—Judge, S. C. Kirkpatrick; Clerk, Tom Cauley; Sheriff, William Cook.

No. 3.—Judge, John B. Morris; Clerk, Charles G. Newkirk; Sheriff, William Winship.

No. 4.—Judge, B. A. Black; Clerk, Ralph Clarkson; Sheriff, John Kelley.

No. 5.—Judge, Frank Cross; Clerk, John Shanahan; Sheriff, James Shanahan.

No. 6.—Judge, Omer Green; Clerk,

LARGE CROWDS ARE THE RULE

People Continue to Pack Places
Wherever James E. Watson
Delivers a Speech.

GOOD AUDIENCE AT FRANKLIN

Speaks at Edinburg Thursday Night,
Spends Today in Carroll County
—Saturday in Madison.

Large crowds are the rule wherever James E. Watson delivers a campaign speech. It was the case of both of his meetings in the neighboring county of Johnson where he spoke yesterday afternoon at Franklin and at night at Edinburg.

Mr. Watson spent today in Carroll county and will be in Madison county Saturday for a speech at Alexandria in the afternoon and one at Alexandria at night.

He spoke at the Franklin opera house, which was jammed with people, on Thursday afternoon. Approximately twenty leading Republicans of Johnson county were on the stage and I. Newt. Brown, who is well known here, presided. Mr. Watson was introduced by Ivory Drybread, an attorney of Franklin.

In spite of the bad weather, the Greenfield Reporter says Watson had a large-sized audience at Greenfield Wednesday night. The crowd included many Democrats and a number of Progressives. Though Mr. Watson has been making many speeches every day for several weeks, his voice was in fairly good shape and every word he spoke was heard by every person in the room.

His speech was a regular party speech from the Republican standpoint, and he declared that the first plank in the Republican national platform this year will be a declaration in favor of the protective tariff. He declared that the principle of protection put into effect under Republican administration had made the United States the wonder of the civilized world. He insisted that the revenue derived from the Underwood law of the Wilson administration was insufficient to meet the running expenses of the government.

He said the present industrial activity in this country was due solely to the manufacture of munitions of war, and were it not for the war this country would be in the condition that it was under the last administration of President Cleveland. He criticized President Wilson for his policies of "watchful waiting" and declared he was not a man for president at times such as now exist and the conditions that are sure to exist for the next four years. He made a strong appeal to Republican voters for their support in the primary next Tuesday.

GOWDY'S HEALTH IMPROVED

He Expects to Leave For Home
While Feeling Better.

Reports have been in circulation here that John K. Gowdy, who has been spending the winter at St. Petersburg, Florida, is in very poor health and wants to get home at once. It was stated today by those in position to know that he had improved now and that he was expecting to leave for home in a few days. It was reported that he had asked a local physician to come to St. Petersburg and accompany him home, but this was denied.

BELGIAN LETTER IS TRANSLATED

John Abercrombie, Who Once Lived
in Paris, Finds Epistle to C. G.
Clark is French.

IT IS AN APPEAL FOR MONEY

Suspected Sale of Embroidered
Flour Sacks May be Scheme
to Defraud.

John Abercrombie, who spent several years in Paris as secretary to John K. Gowdy, when the latter was consul-general from the United States, translated the letter which C. G. Clark received with the highly embroidered sack as a souvenir. Mr. Clark was largely instrumental in sending a large quantity of flour from here to the relief of Belgian war sufferers. The letter was in French and is as follows:

"Arriving from Belgium with a collection of Flemish pictures (oil paintings) and experiencing a lot of trouble in selling them, and not being able to exhibit them anywhere for the lack of money, we thought we might be able to sell you a collection of (flour) sacks which we ourselves bought for the benefit of the war orphans. That would give us (financial) means (resources) enough to rent a room for (exhibiting and) selling our paintings ourselves because the merchants here wish to give us little or nothing for them. Thinking that you may be able to understand our dilemma (difficult situation) we are sending you herewith a sack which was sent by you yourselves to Belgium full of flour, and we are returning it to you, embroidered by the hands of Belgian women that you may have a nice souvenir of your charity. Trusting, sir, that you will give our letter your attention, we send you our sincere best wishes."

MR. and MRS. GEORGE.

49 West 115th Street, New York.

The idea was suggested here today, after the letter was translated, that possibly it was a scheme to dupe people, in view of the fact that it was not being done under the direction of the Belgian relief commission in the United States.

Such a graft was uncovered in New York Wednesday when two men, declaring themselves to be German lieutenants, were arrested for misusing the mails to prey on charitably inclined people.

MILROY CHURCH REJECTS ALL BIDS

Christian Congregation There Finds
Estimates Submitted Today.

LIKELY TO BE READVERTISED

Bids for the construction of the new building to be erected by the Milroy Christian church were received today, but all were rejected as the building committee stated they were too high. The committee was still in session late this afternoon, but it was expected that the bids would have to be advertised again.

The church expects to spend between $12,000 and $14,000 on the building and equipment, and the bids received this afternoon were all higher than these amounts. The church has raised the sum of $12,000 with which to erect the new building. A total of five firms bid for the contract today.

MORTGAGES TO BE FORECLOSED

Final Steps to Dispose of Jacksonian
Receivership Case Are Taken
Today.

TO SELL AT SHERIFF'S SALE

Judge Blair of Shelbyville Will be
in Potts Case.

Final steps towards the disposition of the Jacksonian receivership case were taken today when the court ordered both mortgages against the plant foreclosed. The first mortgage is held by Elihu Price, Sylvester C. Kirkpatrick and others. This mortgage must be satisfied in the sum of $4,892.

Another mortgage held by the Mergenthaler Linotype company amounts to $1,400. The next step will be the issuing of the execution and then the plant will be sold at the sheriff's sale. The court heard the evidence in the case this morning.

Judge Sparks found for the J. T. Barlow company against John Ryon on an account in the sum of $496.54. Mrs. Ryon was also a party to the suit but this was dismissed as to her.

It was announced today that Judge Alonzo Blair of the Shelby circuit court would be here Monday to hear the argument for a new trial in the case of Bertha Potts against Earl Churchill. This case was decided for the defendant in December, 1914, but has been hanging fire on the motion for a new trial.

In the petition of Theodore Holden for the correction of a will record, Judge Sparks found for the plaintiff and ordered the will record corrected as petitioned.

WILL CONVENE THURSDAY

sion This Term.

Judge Sparks this morning ordered the grand jury to report next Thursday. This will be the first meeting of the grand jury this term of court. Just what the grand jury is called for could not be learned. It was intimated that the grand jury might take up the "blind tiger" case against Mart Clevenger, but this is not likely, as the affidavit against him is believed sufficient.

MEETING AGAIN TONIGHT.

CHIEF ENGINEER SAYS WONDERFUL

Minis Chaney, of Marion, Gives Tanlac Credit For His Recent Improvement.

Marion, Ind., March 3.—Minis Chaney, a man of unquestioned honesty and integrity of this city, who lives at 1806 West Second street and who is chief engineer for the Marion Chair Co., recently said regarding Tanlac, the Master Medicine:

"I have suffered with liver and kidney trouble for some time. A few weeks ago I contracted a severe cold, narrowly escaping la grippe. I wheezed, hawked and expectorated most of the time. Frequent headaches, a very poor appetite and pains in my back, made me lack energy and ambition, and I was generally depressed.

"Tanlac, recommended to me by a friend, has given me almost complete relief in a few days. The cold is entirely broken up and la grippe symptoms have vanished. My appetite is fine now, and I am gaining strength and energy. My ambition has returned and my spirits are improved. Tanlac is the most wonderful medicine ever sold. It gets all the credit for my improvement."

Tanlac, which Mr. Chaney recommends so highly, is an appetizer, invigorant, tonic and system purifier. It is especially beneficial for stomach, liver, and kidney trouble, rheumatism, sleeplessness, colds, coughs and the like.

Tanlac is sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. WOLCOTT'S drug store.

Union Workmen Indorse Candidacy of J. W. Lontz

For Democratic Nomination as Representative in Congress

A committee appointed by the Moulders' Union of Richmond, Ind., has found John M. Lontz, candidate for the Democratic nomination as representative in congress, a man who has always been fair to labor and who can be depended upon to champion its cause. Lontz's labor record was investigated (and by a committee of men not in his employ) because he is one of the largest manufacturers of lawn mowers in the United States.

The results of the committee's investigation are contained in the following report it caused to be published in the Richmond Labor Herald of March 3, 1916:

"To the Editor of the Labor Herald:

"Dear Sir and Brother—We, the undersigned committee of Union Moulders, requested of John M. Lontz, candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress in the Sixth District, to meet with us, which he readily arranged to do, February 27.

Former Congressman Johnson Urges Nomination of Lontz

In a letter addressed to Horace G. Yergin, attorney at law, Newcastle, Ind., former congressman Henry U. Johnson, one of the most brilliant men who ever represented the Sixth district in congress, vigorously indorses the candidacy of John M. Lontz for the Democratic congressional nomination. Mr. Johnson asserts that Mr. Lontz as the Democratic candidate can command the support of many Republicans and former Progressives. His letter to Mr. Yergin follows:

My Dear Yergin:—Have the Democratic friends in Henry county stopped to think carefully on the Democratic nomination for congress?

"Whoever is the Republican nominee, Lontz will poll many more votes against him than Gray can possibly command. In fact, Gray has lost strength in Wayne county very perceptibly. John M. Lontz is a popular man in Wayne county. His candidacy has been very heartily received by our people irrespective of party.

"We had a long talk with Mr. Lontz, and we wish to say, from the statements he made to us, that he is very fair to organized labor.

"The wages he is paying his employees are far better than the average wages paid men in that class of work (manufacture of lawn mowers).

"Therefore, it is up to Organized Labor to be fair to this man who tries to be fair to it.

"What labor is working for is what Lontz is working for.

"Therefore, the committee is very well satisfied with the meeting it had with Lontz in regard to his views on Organized Labor.

Yours in Union,

GILBERT HERR,
R. E. NIEMAN
WILLIAM DINGLEY."

"I KNOW PERSONALLY OF REPUBLICANS AND PROGRESSIVES WHO WILL VOTE FOR HIM AT THE ELECTION IF HE IS NOMINATED.

"Lontz has a fine mind, has been a close student of political and economic questions for years and has unquestioned integrity. He is a very energetic man and will make a logical speech in good language upon the stump.

"WE DON'T WANT TO LOSE THIS CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT, and in Wayne county we can make our strongest fight by all odds with Lontz as our standard bearer.

"I cannot go into particulars in this brief letter, but a little inquiry will satisfy anyone that I have made no mistake in stating the relative strength of the two Democratic candidates in Wayne county.

"Very Truly Yours,

HENRY U. JOHNSON.

LUNGS OF A BATTLESHIP.

Ventilation is a Serious Problem in Building War Vessels.

One of the most difficult problems in building a battleship is to secure satisfactory ventilation. She is a very complicated creature, made up of so many steel boxes, large and small, for the accommodation of officers, men, coal, ammunition and stores, dotted here and there with so many steel ladders, automatic lifts, steel bulkheads and water tight doors, varied here and there by miles of electric wires belonging to lights, telephones, bells and motors, to say nothing of the endless mileage of pipes for flooding, draining, pumping, fresh water, fresh air or compressed air and speaking tubes.

First in importance comes the venting of the boiler and engine rooms. When you begin to think of gangs of coal black demons working away in the bowels of the ship at a temperature of 120 degrees; when, too, you commence to realize that unless the furnaces receive their required draft the speed of the battleship drops to below that of her sisters in the squadron, you appreciate the importance of the steam driven fans to the furnaces and boiler rooms. The supply of air comes down through large water tight trunks, which are continued right up to the weather deck, armored gratings being provided at the protective deck.

For ventilating engine rooms large electric fans are employed. So, too, the coal bunkers have to be ventilated, owing to the gas which the coal gives off. This gas when mixed with air forms an explosive, so in order to prevent the possibility of injury to men or ship supply and exhaust pipes are fitted in such a manner as to cause a current of air.—Pearson's Weekly.

Only Nation Without Budget.

We are the only civilized nation that hasn't a budget system. France, Germany, Russia, Japan, England, Italy, Spain, Rumania, Serbia, Portugal, Bulgaria and Venezuela—all these countries and many more have budgets. In each country, that is, certain responsible officers prepare a definite plan for doing things, estimate the cost of executing it and suggest means for raising the money. There is only one important nation that has no business plan, and that is the one that has chiefly distinguished itself as a nation of business men—the United States.—World's Work.

Human Mystery.

Almost every man believes in the mystery of woman. I do not. For men are also mysterious to women; women are quite as puzzled by our stupidity as by our subtlety. I do not believe that there is either a male or a female mystery; there is only the mystery of mankind.—W. L. George in Atlantic Monthly.

Mrs. J. M. Maple says—I use the None-Such Brooder and I think it is fine, have used it one year, and would not do without it as long as I raise chickens.

Mrs. Idanna Ellison says—I like my Incubator as well as any I have seen, and it does as good work as any I have seen or that any of my neighbors who have other kinds.

Mrs. Roy Henseley says—I think my Incubator is very nice.

Mrs. Charles Lewark says—I think that my Incubator is just fine. Set it three times and it has hatched good every time.

Amusements

The Mystic will show a three act feature "West Wind" for the first picture tonight. It is taken from the story of the same name by Cyrus Townsend Brady. Ned Finley, Darwin Karr, Eleanor Woodruff and Harry Northup are featured. In addition to this three reel feature the one act comedy "Matilda's Fling" will be shown. Tomorrow night the three act feature "Hearts Ablaze" will be shown.

The Princess offers the five reel feature "Helene of the North" for the program tonight. Marguerite Clark is featured. She is presented in the most unique impersonation she has yet assumed throughout her triumphant association with the motion picture art. The subject combines in a decidedly novel manner the cultured atmosphere of aristocratic society circles with the rugged environment of the trackless waste of Canada. Besides these far extremes, the drama sways with uninterrupted fascination, and whether in the limitless wilds, or the warm luxurious drawing room, Marguerite Clark is equally effective and enchanting.

JUDGE SHEA NOMINATED
Member of Indiana Appellate Bench to go to Chili.

Washington, March 3.—President Wilson today nominated J. H. Shea of Seymour, Ind., to be ambassador to Chili.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

The revival meeting of the St. Paul's M. E. church will begin next Sunday. Services will be held each evening next week, except Saturday. Clarence E. Lane, the singing evangelist who is to conduct the music, arrived today. New song books have been purchased and the plan is to have a large chorus choir to lead the singing. The pastor is to do the preaching. The cottage prayer meetings which have been held this week, have been well attended and the outlook is for a good meeting.

CONDITION CRITICAL.

The condition of Charles Rasor remained critical throughout the day. No hope is being maintained for his recovery and his death is expected almost any time. He is only conscious at times.

SOME CHICKENS.

A record for the sale of chickens in Rush county was believed to have been established yesterday in Milroy when Mrs. Leonard Booth sold 22 hens to Fred Mock, a poultry dealer, receiving $34.71. The combined weight of the hens was 267. This record surpasses that made in Raleigh a few days ago when Mrs. Ed Smith sold 48 chickens to William Mathews for $48.30.

The sixteenth birthday of Ulysses Brown, colored, was celebrated at his home yesterday when fourteen of his friends were invited into his home and spent a pleasant afternoon. He was the recipient of several pretty gifts and refreshments were served to the guests.

Don't buy water for bluing. Liquid blue is almost all water. Buy Red Cross Ball Blue, the blue that's all blue.

A Simple Way To Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

ANCIENT BAGDAD.

Bite About the Enchanted City of the "Arabian Nights."

Immortalized by Haroun-al-Raschid, in the story of the "Arabian Nights," Bagdad, which has a population of about 150,000, was built on the ruins of an ancient Babylonian city dating back to 2000 B. C. Records have been found on ancient bricks establishing its early date.

Ever since the days of Haroun-al-Raschid the Jews have been the leading figures in the commercial world of Bagdad. There are 50,000 of them, with about 8,000 Chaldean (or heretical) Christians. The remainder of the population is made up of Persians, Turks, Armenians, Arabs and Kurds.

Sindbad the Sailor was born at Bagdad, and all his marvelous adventures begin by his going down the Tigris to Bussorah (the modern Busra).

The city stands on both sides of the Tigris, the two parts being connected by the famous bridge of boats, 220 yards long. A brick wall, five miles in circumference and forty feet high, surrounds Bagdad.

The city contains upward of 100 mosques, though barely twenty of them are in use. The houses generally are old, dirty and ugly outside, but the vaulted ceilings, rich moldings, inlaid mirrors and massive gildings bring back to the recollection of the traveler "the golden prime of the good Haroun-al-Raschid."

The streets are narrow, crooked, unpaved and dirty, full of ruts and strewn with garbage, which, however, is for the most part removed by dogs, the public scavengers in the east.—Pearson's Weekly.

An Exhilarating Bath.

"Many doctors are now discarding the stronger alcohol in ordering baths," says the Farm and Fireside, "and are prescribing the more agreeable bay rum, which is made in Japan from the distillation of rum and the leaves of the bayberry tree. If you want a pleasant, exhilarating bath use this in dilution suiting to your condition. For bathing the sick it seems to have a longer and more stimulating and tonic effect than whisky or alcohol."

Domestic Joys.

"Whenever Mr. and Mrs. Twobble quarrel Mr. Twobble threatens to see his lawyer."

"Well, does he ever go to his lawyer?"

"No."

"Why not?"

"I think it's because Mrs. Twobble dares him to."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Calling His Bluff.

"I'm awfully sorry that my engagements prevent my attending your charity concert, but I shall be with you in spirit."

"Splendid. And where would you like your spirit to sit? I have tickets here for 1 mark, 4 marks and 10 marks."—Ellegende Blaetter.

The Kind.

"There is one class of men who are always ready to help another at a pinch."

"I know. Policemen."—Baltimore American.

Not Unlike It.

He—Did you tell Bones I had a head like a tack? She—No. I said you were a man of great penetration.—Harvard Lampoon.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing, no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

Really a Watson Paper

A glance at the front page and editorial page of the Marion Chronicle of a recent issue after James E. Watson had delivered a speech there removed all doubts as to where that newspaper stands in the primary contest for United States senator and serves to contradict the statements of the New press agents that all of the newspapers are for New. Some folks get the idea that there aren't any newspapers outside of Indianapolis.

Watson's visit called for a display of a two-line headline across the top of the page and a reproduction of his speech in bold, black-face type. Some of the pungent statements from the Marion Chronicle story read like this:

James E. Watson was in Marion last night.

James E. Watson spoke in Marion last night.

James E. Watson SAID SOMETHING in Marion last night.

And with the words he uttered he proved conclusively that the Democratic party is doomed to defeat in November, 1916.

HE PROVED that the Democratic party is one of destruction, and not construction.

HE PROVED that the foreign policy of the present administration is a grim tragedy.

HE PROVED that the administration has turned back in every principle enunciated in the Democratic platform of 1912.

HE PROVED that the Democratic office-holding and failure are synonymous.

HE PROVED that the G. O. P. WILE SWEEP the nation in November beyond the shadow of a doubt.

Incidentally, in the same issue, R. T. St. John, who is familiarly known as the G. O. P. nestor of Grant county, contributed an article to the Chronicle, which was highly complimentary of Watson. He says:

A few articles have appeared lately in the newspapers of this state referring to the campaign of 1908.

Every person who was a voter in 1908 knows what were the factors in that campaign. By the platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties, county local option was made the prominent issue of that campaign. By the action of the special session of the legislature, the question of county option was not fairly presented to the voters, and Mr. Watson went through that campaign against most discouraging odds. He did not falter, but made one of the most memorable

"TIZ" FOR TIRED AND SORE FEET

Use "Tiz" for puffed-up, burning, aching, calloused feet and corns.

Why go limping around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet?

"Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swellings and draws the soreness and misery right out of feet that chafe, smart and burn. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, callouses and bunions. "Tiz" is glorious for tired, aching, sore feet. No more shoe tightness—no more foot torture.

We are authorized to announce the name of Charles C. Brown as a candidate for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket, subject to the decision of the primary election, March 7, 1916.

I will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress before the Primary, March 7th, and as the duties of my office and attention to important measures before Congress will prevent my returning to my District, I take this means to ask the voters for their support.

FINLY H. GRAY.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

political campaigns in the history of our state. He was made the target of the opposition and bore the burden of that fight as very few men could have done. Of course, he suffered in that campaign, but he did not complain. He manfully fought the battle of the party. It will become any one familiar with that campaign to attempt to use its results to injure. Mr. Watson at this time. He should have commendation and praise, and not adverse criticism, for his magnificent campaign.

Will some of these gentlemen who are trying to prove all things by figures tell us what man in Indiana would have made a more brilliant campaign or a better showing than did Mr. Watson in 1908? Ability, integrity and a pleasing personality are three requisites for a candidate and a representative of the people. Does not Mr. Watson possess these essential qualifications to an unusual degree?

Mr. Watson, for many years, has spoken in every county in Indiana. Will any one say that he ever injured the cause he represented or that the voters were not stronger in their republicanism after hearing him? His ability to present and defend Republican doctrines is recognized throughout the nation itself. These facts are so well known by the voters that the recital seems unnecessary. Yet, in the heat of political contests, the friends of candidates sometimes allow their zeal to carry them too far and erroneously imagine they are rendering their favorite a service by indulging in unfriendly criticism of opposing candidates.

Unwise and unworthy methods should not be used in nomination contests, but we should all recognize our party obligation, and realize that party harmony means party strength.

Any voter in Rush county who wants to help nominate the Republican ticket, no matter what his past party affiliations may have been, he does not need to lose any sleep over it. He is doubly reassured that the Republicans of Rush county are agreed that any man who wants to vote in the Republican primary has that privilege and they will not question his intentions for a minute.

President Wilson has sent word to congressional leaders that he will not accept a compromise. His edict that his foreign policy as concerns the German submarine order be supported has gone forth. It wouldn't do for President Wilson to get into a law suit.

The all important question of whether March came in like a lion or a lamb has never yet been settled to most people's satisfaction.

JOHN BROWN DILLON (9)

1808-1879

John B. Dillon has rightly been called the "Father of Indiana History." Born in West Virginia, he studied the printers trade in Ohio, and removed to Logansport, this state, 1830. Shortly after being admitted to the bar, he left the legal profession, and turned to the study of history. No more careful or painstaking writer can be found in the whole school of historical writers than John B. Dillon. In 1859 his monumental work, "The History of Indiana," appeared. The accuracy and conscientious research embodied in the book, marks it a model for historical writers. From 1845 to 1850, Dillon was state librarian. He later held other public positions, such as assistant secretary of state, secretary of the state board of agriculture, and clerk of the house committee on military affairs. Dillon also won notice as a poet, being the author of "The Burial of the Beautiful," "The Orphan's Lament," and "The Funeral of the Year."

PATRICK J. LYNCH

Indorsed Throughout the District. His Home County is for Him.

"We, the Republicans of Henry County in mass convention recognize in Patrick J. Lynch an able and enthusiastic advocate of the Republican Party, an honorable citizen of Henry County and a fit and proper person to represent the Sixth Congressional District in the Congress of the United States and therefore we recommend his candidacy for that office."

The Press of the District is Strong for Lynch

Patrick J. Lynch, candidate for the Congressional nomination on the Republican ticket at the coming Primary has completed an active and thorough campaign in all the counties of the Sixth District except Wayne. He opened a ten days' canvass in this county Thursday, speaking at Williamsburg Thursday afternoon and at Bethel Thursday night. Mr. Lynch is an earnest and eloquent speaker and a worker for the success of his Party at all times. To the vigorous and untiring campaign made by him under the most unfavorable conditions in 1914, is due much credit for the splendid gains made by the Party, which brought success to many of the county officers elected in the entire District—Cambridge City Tribune.

From the Liberty Herald, October 1, 1914.—He is an earnest and able speaker, impressing his hearers as a man of deep conviction and high purposes. He has Republican doctrines well in hand, is courteous in referring to the other parties and is withal a pleasing speaker. He certainly made a favorable impression in Union County with the voters who met and heard him.

From the Brookville American—He (Lynch) stands for the best sort of Republicanism in the district. He has come up from the ranks of labor and knows how to sympathize with the men who use their hands to earn their living. He has no fads or fancies considering government. He believes in a government that will meet exigencies of the times. He believes in just laws that will make a better condition for the working man, that will give the farmer an opportunity to reap the fruits of his toil and will bring to all men the prosperity and happiness which they have the right to expect under the guarantee of the constitution.

Mr. Lynch impresses us as one having a good deal of "Back-bone" and the ability to think for himself. He has the reputation of keeping his word and hanging on for what he believes to be right. He will make a Congressman who will worthily represent the Sixth District.

From the New Castle Courier, October 23, 1914.—If you are disgusted with the demoralized condition due to the operation of the Democratic tariff law, vote for P. J. Lynch who is the Sixth District Congressional candidate of the "party of protection."

From the Greensfield Republican, October, 1914.—Although compelled to support himself early in life he availed himself of every opportunity in the way of cultivating his mind and by close application and constant reading he possesses a liberal education and he is a fluent and eloquent speaker. His whole life has been such as to develop and stimulate those qualities so essential to a representative of the people at this particular time of extravagance in public affairs. He has learned the lesson of economy in the practical school of experience. Successful in the management of his own business he knows how to manage public affairs. He is a man for the place and these times. If elected he will do more than just fill his seat in the National House of Representatives. He will give every hour of his time to the practical work of Congress instead of attempting to attract national attention by freak speeches. The people will have a real, practical, effective representative in Congress if they elect P. J. Lynch.

From the New Castle Courier, October 5, 1915.—P. J. Lynch, who is now making a campaign of Henry County in behalf of his candidacy for Congressman from the Sixth District on the Republican ticket is making a most favorable impression. He is an orator of no mean ability and he is telling his audiences which are large and interested, the plain, unvarnished truth about the political situation in the state and nation and he is finding the people ready and anxious to hear it. Mr. Lynch's Republicanism is of the sturdy and unwavering kind. He believes in the policies and principles of his party and when he goes to Washington no one will have any fear as to his stand and vote on Party measures. He stands four square on the Republican platform and he is a protectionist of the first order.

At the time Mr. Lynch opened the campaign in Wayne county in 1914 the Richmond Palladium, Progressive organ said: "The meeting was opened with an address by Mr. Lynch. He is an eloquent speaker and made a big hit with his audience."

Much Has Been Recently Said

in the columns of our local Democratic newspaper, and by some of its political patrons, relative to Section 10 of the wonderful Primary Law as enacted by our Democratic Legislature.

It would seem that they are not willing to accept the ruling of our Supreme Court, as delivered by our own Judge Morris, but they seek to create the impression that no one can safely participate in the selection of any party ticket, which they did not support two years ago.

Judge Morris, speaking for the higher court, says that this may be done under the provisions of Section 10, providing the vote is not challenged. True, he does not declare Section 10 void, but he says that no one can challenge the vote except a member from the party for whose ticket the voter is then seeking to vote. In other words, he says that by failing to challenge the vote, that party waives its objection to the vote in every particular.

It may be that our Democratic Brethren are intending to challenge all such, if any, who thus attempt to vote their ticket. If this be true, it would be indeed a very serious thing for such persons to attempt to vote the Democratic ticket. However, we know of one political party, Republican by name, which will not exercise that right of challenge, and which bids everybody welcome to participate in the naming of its ticket, who expects to support that ticket in November.

The Republican party in Indiana, and in Rush County, presents to the voters a list of candidates of whom we are justly proud. They are able men and well qualified to fill the various offices which they seek. It is the duty of every voter to help select that ticket next Tuesday. You can not avoid the responsibility. The burden is upon you personally. You, alone, can discharge it, and whether or not we are able to land our own favorite sons, or our personal friends, we expect to support the ticket. This is the kind of Republicanism that exists in Rush County.

GERMAN ATTACK "THE REAL THING"

French Feel Certain of This Because of Renewal of Severe Fighting Near Verdun.

NOT UNMINDFUL OF A TRUST

Paris, March 3.—Renewal of the severe fighting around Verdun, reported in official dispatches today, convinced French military experts that the present German offensive is "the real thing."

German dead are now strewn about Verdun wood and hills until the fields, from a distance, seem to be covered with a strange, gray-green growth. Not alone because the Tuetons have suffered enormous losses, but for other reasons, Paris critics do not believe the Verdun attacks a feint. French leaders certainly are not unmindful of the possibility of a sudden German thrust in the Champagne or near Paris along the Aisne.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, when you feel "tired" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

Society and Club News

Edited by Miss Frances Frazee.

To the many music lovers and admirers of true art, the news that Grand Opera is actually coming to Rushville was more than welcome. Justly have we boasted of our musical talent and now just as proudly can we boast of the refined taste for the best things in the musical world. The coming of Grand Opera is made possible only by the initiative taken by the Tri Kappas and by the hearty co-operation of the men and women here, who have realized and taken hold of the opportunity to bring the best real art within our reach. And through this talented company of six, we are to hear parts of our favorite operas, for as the soloists give impersonations of their various roles, vocal art is supplemented by dramatic technique; we are to hear the wonderful Skovgaard and, well, words cannot really promise in true colors the treat and the inspiration that is to be ours, when only a week from tonight the event that all society and all music lovers are anticipating with pleasure and eagerness, will be here.

Mrs. Lowell M. Green will entertain the members of the Embroidery club tomorrow afternoon at her home in East Sixth street.

Tri Kappa will have the regular meeting with Mrs. Harry Osborne at home at 717 North Willow street on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Chauncey Duncan received informally yesterday afternoon when several friends came to call on her interesting guest, Miss Helen Johnson of Madison. Miss Johnson and C. Arthur Tatters of Indianapolis, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan for several days, returned to their homes today.

EUCHRE PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. William Mathew of Raleigh afforded a delightful evening for their thirty guests last evening when progressive euchre was the game of the evening. The spirited contestants spent lively and pleasant hours over the card table. The surroundings for the affair were especially pleasant, a dainty color effect being carried out with bowls of primrose and different colored carnations in slender vases throughout the rooms. Following the card series the guests enjoyed a two course luncheon, which was bounteous as well as delicious.

R. N. A. DANCE
The girls of R. N. A. furnished a good time last evening for their guests when they entertained at the Phi Delta Theta hall with an informal dancing party. Forty couples of dancers filled the floor during the series of dances for which music was furnished by Sherman's Orchestra, which aided materially in the pleasure of the evening. One of the most enjoyable features of the event was the cabaret music furnished by Dr. Hale Pearsey who sang several catchy numbers and was generously applauded. Punch was served during the evening to the guests. Dancers from Indianapolis, Connersville and several other surrounding towns were among the guests, who included Mr. Mathews of Connersville, Miss Rogers of Indianapolis, and Mr. Baker of Connersville.

COUNTRY CLUB.
Another gay evening was furnished for the members of the Country Club last evening when they were

YOUR BRONCHIAL TUBES

When a cold settles in the bronchial tubes, with that weakening, tickling cough, immediate treatment is very important. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present, your head jars with every cough and your chest may ache. This is no time for experimenting or delay—you must get Scott's Emulsion at once to drive out the cold which started the trouble, and it will check the cough by aiding the healing process of the enfeebled membranes. If you have any symptoms of bronchitis, or even a stubborn cold, always remember that Scott's Emulsion has been relieving this trouble for forty years. It is free from alcohol or drugs. Refuse substitutes.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-45 entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ferron Whitinger whose hospitable home is south of the city. Twenty-five of the members gathered from their homes about the country and joined together in the merry round of games, dancing and other amusements which made the evening a busy one. The services of a dainty luncheon brought the pleasant affair to a close.

QUILTING BEE.
The old-fashioned fad of quilting parties have again come into popularity, it seems. Quilting and knotting comforts proved the pleasant entertainment for the guests of Mrs. Robert Hiner of North Main street who entertained informally this afternoon. After a short afternoon which was busily spent, a delicious refection was served by the hostess to the guests who included Mrs. A. R. Herkless, Mrs. W. A. Caldwell, Harrison and Miss Kate Chester, of Miss Helen Caldwell, Mrs. Fannie Rising Sun.

LURLINE COUNCIL
Aside from the good time that resulted from the social given by the Lurline Council at the Red Men Hall last evening, financially it was a success also. A lodge meeting opened the evening when about a hundred and fifty members of the Council and Red Men orders were present. Following this the merry crowd were served to refreshments in the dining room, and then the pillow which has been creating a great amount of curiosity as to whom will be the lucky owner, was given to James Smith of Connersville. Live music was furnished all during the evening by an orchestra. Dancing, old-fashioned games and other lively diversions amused the guests during the remainder of the delightful event. About thirty dollars was cleared as a result of the affair.

SURPRISE PARTY.
Yesterday being the forty-fifth birthday of Wood Bishop, of north of the city, a jolly crowd of his friends and neighbors came in upon him in the afternoon, greatly to his surprise and pleasure. The contents of their baskets filled the table with a menu, the numbers of which defy enumeration. Placed upon the dining table, it was served in buffet style. After this hearty repast, cards and dancing to Victrola music made a lively evening for the guests who included Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bishop and family, Mrs. Nancy Furry, Mr. and Mrs. Greely Mauzy, Mr. and Mrs. Derby Green and family, Rice Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bishop, Mrs. Rachel Ginn, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clifford.

GUEST DAY
About sixty-five members of the C. W. B. M. of Little Flatrock and their guests from the Orange Auxiliary were present yesterday at the guest day meeting of the society that was held in the church in the afternoon. The church presented an unusually home-like and airy appearance thanks to the pretty bouquets of sweet peas and ferns that were used to decorate it appropriately for the occasion. With these preparations and the excellent program which was given for the entertainment, the ladies of the Flatrock proved their ability as hostesses. Several changes has been made in the program, it being given in the following order:

Piano solo—Mrs. Walter Norris.
Hymn, "The Story Must be Told."
Scripture reading—Mrs. Bert Heaton.

Prayer—Mrs. John Casady.
Hymn—"America."
Piano solo—Mrs. Bessie Hoffman.
Roll Call.

Report of Christian church conference—Mrs. Alfred Looney.

Talk on aims and plans of the society—Mrs. Bert Heaton, president.

Circle of prayer—led by Mrs. Walter Norris.

Talk "Hannah's Boy and Mine"—Mrs. Charles Carney.

Discussion led by Mrs. Charles Fisher and Mrs. O. J. Myers.

Quartet—"Press Onward Heirs of Glory"—Miss Beulah Murphy, Mrs. Curtis Geise, Mrs. Herbert Holden and Mrs. Moody Edwards.

Talk on Laymen's conference by the Rev. Moody Edwards.

Recitation—Miss Mariamne Holman.

Hymn—"God be with You Till we Meet Again."

The delicious refreshments were served by the ladies of the March division which includes Mrs. John Heeb, Mrs. Ora Norris, Mrs. Rena Stevens, Mrs. Sarah Smelser, Miss Lola Holden, and Mrs. Martha Looney.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

The royal hospitality of the members of the Uniform Rank was exercised last evening in the beautiful ball with which they entertained their wives and lady friends at the Knights of Pythias hall. A dignity and beauty was added to the affair with the gentlemen in the full military dress and the ladies gayly arrayed in brightly colored evening toilettes. It gave a picture of the most beautiful of all affairs, that of a military ball. As the picturesque company was escorted into the dining hall to the music of a notional air, a huge American flag was unfurled. The soft glow cast from the lights concealed beneath Japanese lanterns disclosed four long tables decorated with a color scheme of green and white and brightened with pretty ferns upon the tables. Four faultless courses comprised the dinners, last of which was ice cream in the Rank colors of red, yellow and blue. Soon after dining, the tables were cleared away and to the strains of music furnished by Mitchell's orchestra, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Trabue led off in the grand march, in which several pretty figures were made. Mr. Trabue is Adjutant General of the Uniform Rank of the United States. A delightful program of dances was enjoyed by the dancers, thanks to the smooth floor, good music, cordial hospitality and congenial partners.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. Ballard of Newcastle. Mr. Ballard and Mr. Nicholson are members of the Rank in Newcastle and aided in the royal reception that was given the local men while there recently.

The committee to whom credit is due for the pleasant evening was composed of John Worthington, Norm Norris and Fred Cochran.

WEAK, AILING CHILD

Made Strong by Delicious Vinol.

Lakeport, N. H.—"Our little girl 8 years of age was in a debilitated, run-down condition and had a stubborn cough so she was weak and ailing all the time. Nothing helped her until we tried Vinol. Then her appetite increased and she is strong and well, and I wish other parents of weak, delicate children would try Vinol."—George A. Collins.

This is because Vinol contains the tissue building, strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron which a weak and run-down system needs. F. B. Johnson & Co., Drug-gists, Rushville, Ind.

THE IDEAL HUSBAND

You are probably a woman. Few men would pause to read an article headed "The Ideal Husband." Man knows his fellow men too well.

Of course it is true that nearly every married woman has at some time in her life claimed to have found the one ideal husband, but not for long. He is not a stable article; he is only a fleeting glimpse.

Shortly after a young married woman declares hers to be the ideal husband he exhibits a tendency to crumble his crackers in his soup or to place a slice of bread in his empty dinner plate and submerge it in gravy. These things "are not done."

While a man is still engaged—held under option, as it were, but not definitely contracted for—he is for a short while considered ideal. However, he just begins to enjoy his perfection when it is discovered by his general manager elect that he rests his knife and fork half on the tablecloth and half on his plate, while they should be draped artistically across his plate midway between meat and potatoes. To save time, probably he also cuts his meat into small pieces before starting to eat it.

He has good reasons for doing as he does, but they do not excuse him. His sort of conduct and perfection simply do not walk hand in hand.

No young couple should be engaged long enough for either one to discover the other's shortcomings. So long as a man and a girl are so mutually mesmerized that the eyes of one never leave the eyes of the other he is perfect, but the moment he allows her glances to stray below his Adam's apple, the moment he loses control, he loses also perfection. She realizes that his knowledge of esthetics was gleaned from an abridged edition; that his tie is not in vogue, that his collar is too loose and too low and therefore too comfortable.

Ah me! I have strayed from my subject—the ideal husband. Let me return to it and proceed.

There is no such thing.—Paul Wing in Century.

TO BUILD BATTLESHIPS.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Mar. 3.—The senate naval affairs committee today unanimously reported a $2,065,000 appropriation to equip the Puget Sound navy yard for battleship construction.

MRS FERREE DIES.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Frances Ferree, widow of John H. Ferree, who was related here, at the home of her daughter in Indianapolis, where she was spending the winter. Burial took place in Fairmount. Mrs. Ferree was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Mary J. Walton of Sixth street, sister of Mrs. James Wilson and aunt of Rich Wilson. Mrs. Walton was at her bedside when she died.

DOMESTIC BLISS

It takes my wife a long time to read anything. I skim whole pages instantly. She hates to be read aloud to. I love it.

When we travel I always suggest to her in advance the car we shall take. She agrees, but will suddenly change her mind and insist upon taking another one. I grumble to myself and obey. She likes the top of the auto up. I loathe it up. It remains up.

I always praise her golf, no matter how badly she plays. She always deprecates mine, no matter how well I play. When I criticize anything she does I don't say it; I think it. That sometimes makes trouble enough.

I compliment her occasionally before others. She pretends that she doesn't understand why I do it.

When I buy a new suit she will never admit that she admires it until it is worn out. Then she says the next one isn't half so becoming as the last. When she gets a new gown I admire it intensely until it is about time to replace it with another. She never liked any hat that I have ever bought. I like every one of hers—on principle.

I laugh at her when she gets too serious. When I get too serious she scolds me.

I keep her informed about my business only when she asks me. She never asks me, so you know the result.

I tell her a funny story every day. If I have two I keep one for the next day. Sometimes she laughs at them.

She asks me occasionally if I think her hair is as long as it was. I always tell her it is longer.

I hate bridge, dinner parties, dancing and the opera. She respects my opinion and makes me do them all.

She makes out checks and forgets to enter them on the stubs. Every time I catch her in this omission she reminds me of the celebrated occasion when I left the tickets to a large theater party in my other suit.

She always keeps her temper when I lose mine. I keep mine when she loses hers.

I once told her she was thoroughly spoiled. She kissed me and said she knew it.—Life.

MORE RHEUMATISM THAN EVER BEFORE

Clergymen, Lawyers, Brokers, Mechanics and Merchants Stricken.

Our old friend Rheumatiz is having his inning this year, and a few words of caution from one who knows all about it may not be amiss.

Wear rubbers in damp weather; keep your feet dry; drink plenty of lemonade, and avoid strong alcoholic drinks.

If rheumatism gets you, or sciatica and you have sharp twinges, gnawing pain or swollen joints or muscles, you can get rid of all agony in just a few days by taking one-half teaspoonful of Rheuma once a day.

All druggists know about Rheuma; it's harmless, yet powerful; cheap, yet sure, and a 50-cent bottle will last a long time. Ask Johnson's Drug Store or any other Druggist.

GAIN LAURELS AT HOME AND ABROAD

Fact That Skovgaard, Danish Violinist, Has $13,000 Violin is Quite Incidental.

The New York Metropolitan company which will appear at the Graham Annex auditorium, Friday evening March 10, comes highly recommended, having gained laurels not only at home but abroad.

Of Skovgaard, the Danish violinist, whose work is one of the big features of each presentation; the Berlin Local Anzeiger says;

Skovgaard is a perfect master of his instrument and his audience is involuntarily drawn into a state of perfect harmony with him. He overcame the greatest technical difficulties with ease and the taste and thorough comprehension which characterizes his playing proves that he possesses a complete knowledge of his art.

While the chief interest centers upon the appearance of Skovgaard, there are five other musicians of excellent talent to make their bow; Alice McClung, pianiste; Miss Florence Hawkins, lyric soprano; Clara Freuler, mezzo-soprano; Molly Byerly Wilson, contralto; and Francis W. Cowles, baritone. These are all artists of the very highest type in their respective lines and the program to be rendered by them will be of the greatest variety. There will be arias from your favorite operas, in costume, and folk songs, so dear to the heart of everyone; in fact it will be a program to satisfy all.

will give the "Barcarolle" from the "Tales of Hoffman," by Offenbach. It may be that ultra informed musical people may disdain so tuneful and melodic an end, yet there is something fine in the prospect of the "Barcarolle" as a finale. It gives one something substantial to whistle as one walks home.

The fact that Skovgaard has a $13,000 violin, a real Stradivarius—is quite incidental. Nor is the information that he carries a $50,000 insurance policy upon his left hand more than a fair entree to the acquisitive minds of people who are bewildered by things musical; it is the bigger fact that he is a good musician and would play with feeling upon an instrument of infinitely less value which should make everyone accord him a generous welcome.

Skovgaard was born in Copenhagen in 1875. By the time he was a small chap of six he was taking violin lessons. They even say he extemporized a violin out of a cigar box. Anyway at the age of 20 he became a pupil of Joseph Joachim. To be a pupil of the great Joachim is the same as kissing the ends of the finger tips and saying "Parbleu." Not every man can say it. Now they say "Caesar Thompson." Later he received recognition from the crowned patrons of music and today is an artist whose power has had time to mature. He has gained those finer qualities of balance and resource of interpretation which can come in no other way than by steady development of the musician himself in devotion to his inborn and chosen art.

He happily escaped the misfortune of being foisted on the world as an infant prodigy. Instead he has been allowed to follow the vastly wiser course of remaining unknown through the long years of unremitting toil which are essential to the proper development of genius. As a result his work is now no immature and wonderful exhibition of miraculously early endowment, but the balanced well rounded performance of one who has earned the right to play as master of his art. Genius is there; without it no man can be a great musician. But it is genius controlled and made subservient to the will of one who is imbued with the highest traditions of what violin playing ought to be.

WHICH IS BETTER?

A Shoe at a Price or a Shoe of Quality? What does it matter if you pay a few cents per pair more for shoes, and get three months more service on that shoe?

We hear a great deal nowadays about shoes at a price. Any shoe store can sell shoes at a price. That is no trick. It is shoes of quality that stand out so prominent in the long run. Shoes that will give the wearer such satisfaction that they will come back for another pair.

The New Spring Shoes are coming in—Try us for a pair of the long wearing kind.

16 NATIONS ARE TAKING PART

Second Year of San Diego Exposition Will be Formally Opened on March 18

NEW RECORD IS ESTABLISHED

Several Added Features For This Year Announced—Several New Exhibits in Place

(By United Press.)

San Diego, Cal., March 3.—Sixteen nations are participating in the big second year of the San Diego exposition, which will be formally opened by President Davidson the 18th of this month.

When the 1915 Exposition closed December 31 it had established a world record for expositions by remaining open an entire year. The first day of the new year found the gates still open and President G. A. Davidson announced to a New York's day crowd of 20,000 that a new international exposition would be built on the 1915 success. This will establish a two year record for exposition operation which, it is believed, will stand for many years as a record.

Among the greatest of these exhibits are those of the United States Government, Canada, France, Italy, Brazil, The Netherlands and Germany. The wonderful Canadian display at San Francisco is being installed in the Commerce and Industries building, which will be known in 1916 as the Canadian building.

The United States government is represented by 17,000 square feet of display, housed in three buildings. A thousand U. S. Marines, a battalion of U. S. Infantry, a part of the First U. S. cavalry, and several government bands will be on the grounds before dedication day.

France opened the famous Luxembourg collection of 80 paintings to the public in the Fine Arts building February 12 and other exhibits of the French republic are being installed in the California building.

The Isthmus, the "furlined" joy street, is being completely reorganized and will contain a score of new attractions before March 18. It is planned to change the make-up of attractions each month.

Along with a comprehensive program of special events, a dozen great bands are being engaged for 1916, including Russian, Italian, Philippine and South American. The strolling Spanish singers and dancers which added to the Spanish effect of the architecture, the patios and plazas, have made their reappearance on the grounds and are to be a daily feature here all year.

An automobile demonstration field where every test to which motors and motor vehicle can be put is an added feature and special events offered here daily promises to be the most sensational ever offered by transportation vehicles. A special effort is being made to have President Woodrow Wilson present at the dedication.

Swift's Fertilizers Continue to Make Winners

If you use Swift's Fertilizer and obtained the best yield in the state you would, of course, give our fertilizer the credit that was due it. NOW, if the following year's Champion used Swift's and this performance repeated from year to year, you naturally would begin to think that Swift's Red Steer Brand is a pretty good fertilizer, would you not?

Look at the Record and Decide Yourself.

There can be no better proof of the value of a fertilizer than the records made by those who use it. There must be merit in a fertilizer that produces the results stated below:

Mr. Will Essig, Tipton, Indiana—131 bushels corn per acre. The largest yield of which there is any record in Indiana. Mr. Essig was recently awarded a gold medal at the Panama Exposition. Used SWIFT'S.

Mr. Norris McHenry, Elizabethtown, Ind.—112 bushels per acre. Winner of the Indiana 1914 Men's Five Acre Corn Contest. Used SWIFT'S. In 1915 he was induced to use other than Swift's Fertilizer and got no prize.

Mr. F. R. McHenry, Norris' father—used no fertilizer in 1914 and won no prize, but as his son won the State Championship in 1914 with the aid of Swift's Fertilizer, Mr. McHenry used Swift's in 1915, got 87.3 bushels of ripe corn per acre and won the sweepstakes for men in the Bartholomew County Five Acre Corn Contest.

The 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th prizes for the highest yields of good quality corn in the 1915 Five Acre Corn Contest for men in Bartholomew County, Indiana, all went to users of Swift's Fertilizer. Also in the Boys' One-Acre Corn Contest in the same county, the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th prizes went to users of Swift's Fertilizer.

The Ohio 1914 Champion Corn Grower, Arnett Rose, Alger, Ohio—153.9 bushels—used SWIFT'S.

The Ohio 1915 Champion Corn Grower, Dewey Haines, Arcanum, Ohio—154 bushels—used SWIFT'S.

The Indiana 1914 Boy Champion Corn Grower, Roy Friedersdorf, Elizabethtown, Ind.—128.8 bu.—used SWIFT'S.

Gordon Reap, Elizabethtown, Indiana, who was third last year, is County Champion with 105.73 bushels. He also used SWIFT'S this year.

There certainly MUST be something in Swift's Fertilizers that PRODUCES RESULTS. Swift's blood, bone and tankage fertilizers make prize winners.

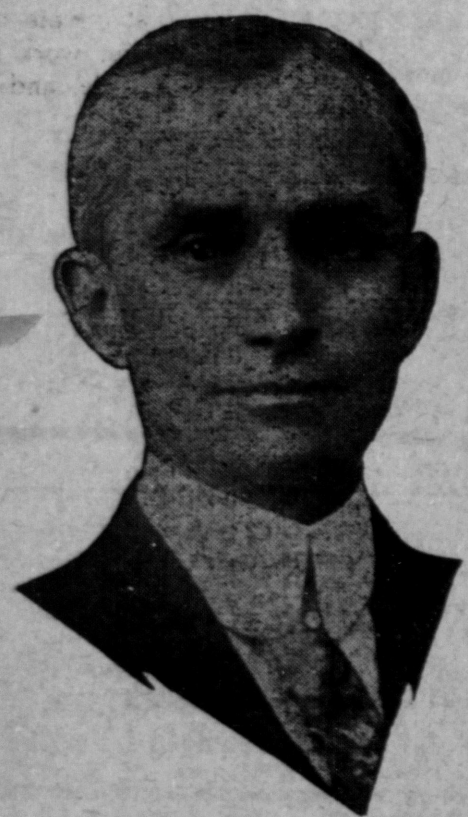

If YOU do not use Swift's Fertilizers, you are not sure that you are using the best fertilizer obtainable. You want the best—then buy SWIFT'S—the Red Steer Brand.

CANDIDATE FOR CLERK Of the Circuit Court.

Subject to the Decision of the Republican Primaries March 7, 1916.

FRANK C. BUELL

To the Republicans of Rush County:

As it is nearly impossible to see each one individually we are authorized to take this method of placing his name before the voters for their consideration.

WHO IS HE?

He is a farmer, 48 years old, born and always lived on the farm where he now resides and received his education in the township and city schools.

He makes no claim to be entitled to the office any more than any other Republican that has always voted and worked for the party.

He does not say he needs the office to make a living as he is making a very good living where he is, but if nominated and elected he does not promise to give the salary away as he never saw any one yet who could not use another dollar or two.

He has been a Republican all his life; his father has been a Republican since the birth of the party; and his grandfather was a Whig before he was a Republican. None of them have ever held a county office or even asked for one.

If nominated and elected, he promises to serve the people to the best of his ability.

LYNCH CERTIFIED TO HIS NAME AS P. J.

LYNCH CONSULTED ABOUT IT

The question has been raised concerning the spelling of the name on the local primary election ballot of P. J. Lynch of Newcastle, Republican candidate for the congressional nomination. His name appears on the ballot as "P. J. Lynch" and was certified to as "P. J. Lynch" in the office of the secretary of state, Homer L. Cook, in Indianapolis, as required by the law. The primary state says the names of candidates for president, vice-president, senator, governor, legislative and judicial offices shall be certified to in the office of the secretary of state and candidates for all other offices in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which they are a candidate.

Although the law says the names of candidates shall be placed on the ballot in full, Lynch's name came to the clerk of the court here as "P. J. Lynch" instead of "Patrick J. Lynch." Members of the election board consulted Mr. Lynch before the time expired for placing the names on the ballots, but he said he had always signed his name "P. J. Lynch" and that it might as well be left that way.

COMPANY IS INCORPORATED

Milroy Organization to Supply Light, Heat and Power.

The Milroy Light & Power company of Milroy has filed incorporation papers in Indianapolis. The capital stock is $6,000, the incorporation papers show. The avowed purpose of the company is to supply the town of Milroy with light, heat and power. It will be recalled that the company was formed some time ago when the light company at Milroy quit business and the town was left without any electric current. The directors are given as William W. Baryon, William B. Crane, Frank McCorkle and Claude Crane.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Brown Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.

A friend who is a nurse said for me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 1109 Auburn Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

FOREIGN SHIPS TO BE HIT BY LAW

Lafollette Seamen's Act Will be Applied to This Class of Ships Beginning Tomorrow.

MAY MEAN RAISE IN WAGES

(By United Press.)

Washington, March 3.—Foreign ships tomorrow will be placed on the footing of American ships as respects personnel of crew, right of individual seamen and safety appliances. The Lafollette seamen's bill goes into effect as to non-American ships.

The power of the United States to refuse clearance papers to such vessels as do not conform to the requirements of the law is ordered invoked by the term of the act effective tomorrow. Enforcement is in the hands of the Department of Commerce. Hereafter, foreign as well as American vessels must live up to these requirements:

No more passengers shall be carried than can be accommodated by the life-boats and life-rafts. Seventy-five per cent of the crew must be able to understand the orders of the officers. Forty per cent must be able seamen—at least 19 years old and with three years experience, except as they are qualified by special examination conducted by the Department of Commerce.

A sailor may leave his ship in port at will; and the provision of treaties and other international agreements that officers of the United States must aid in searching for him as a deserter and returning him to his vessel is repealed. He can collect, however, but a fractional part of his wages if he quits this way.

Senator Lafollette, author of the bill, claims the result of its going into effect as to foreign vessels will be to raise wages for seamen the world over, to remove the high labor cost handicap of American operators. Sailors shipped in Liverpool, for instance at a wage of $12 to $15 a month will be within their legal rights in quitting their ship in New York and refusing to re-ship except at the higher rate of American wages. Already, says Lafollette, the seamen's union is spreading this information among its men, and the ship owners are considering methods of fighting it.

The bill has been in effect as to American ships since Nov. 4, 1915.

READING WORTHY OF LOYAL SUPPORT

Not Only Because of Ability of Miss Jeanette, But Because of What Money Will Do.

"ACROSS THE BORDER," THEME

The following announcement concerning the reading of Miss Jeanette Kling under the auspices of the Shakespeare club for the benefit of the visiting nurse fund has been made:

On Monday evening, March 20, Miss Jeanette Kling will give an entertainment in the Graham Annex Auditorium, Miss Kling is one of the four best and most noted readers in the United States at the present time. For this entertainment, Miss Kling will read a selection with a war theme entitled "Across the Border." It is in this reading that Miss Kling appears at her best. Miss Kling is being brought to Rushville under the auspices of the Shakespeare Club, and the entire net proceeds will be donated to the Visiting nurse fund. Because of the ability of the reader, the high quality of the entertainment, and the worthiness of the cause, the citizens of Rushville should give this entertainment their loyal support.

The ladies of the Sexton Christian church will hold a chicken exchange next Saturday in Davis and Jones Millinery Store. 30412

Wayne County Democratic Central Committee Endorses Lontz Candidacy

The Wayne County Democratic County Central Committee has adopted the following resolutions:

The candidacy of John M. Lontz for congress is making splendid progress throughout the Sixth District. This is not surprising when the qualities of the man and the existing political conditions are considered.

The first condition that confronts the Democracy is the significant fact that there will be only two candidates for congress in the district in the campaign of this year. The pertinent question is, where will the 9,200 votes go that were cast for the Progressive candidate in 1914?

The present representative, Mr. Gray, was elected in 1914 by a plurality over Mr. Lynch, Republican, by 3,400. If a Democratic representative be elected next November he must not only carry Mr. Gray's vote in 1914, but about 4,000 additional votes. It is no disparagement of Mr. Gray to admit, in view of his greatly reduced plurality of 1914 from that of 1912, that there is grave doubt of his ability to secure this needed additional vote either from the Progressives or from any other source.

Can John M. Lontz secure enough votes outside of the ranks of Democracy to be elected?

We believe he can get these votes and be elected for the following reasons:

FIRST—He is a new man, free from factional or political entanglements and personal enmities.

SECOND—He is an alert and successful business man with unusual executive and administrative ability, and also well versed in the principles of common law on which all statutory law is founded.

THIRD—He understands the political issues of the day and is especially well informed on the vital questions of the tariff and the currency. As a large exporter of lawn mowers he is well qualified to expose the fallacies of the Standpat "scare crow" that a high tariff is necessary to protect American labor from the pauper labor of Europe.

FOURTH—His personal popularity will bring to him if nominated, the aid of 2,000 votes outside his party in Wayne county alone.

SEYMOUR TEAM TO BE BIG FAVORITE

Expected to Win District Tournament There—Has Defeated Most of Contenders.

ONLY ONE GAME REMAINS

(By United Press.)

Seymour, Ind., March 3.—The Seymour quintette will go into the sectional tournament here March 10 a big favorite for first place. This assertion is based up on the available records of the teams which are scheduled to play here. Of the teams which will fight it out for the district honors, the Seymour team has defeated in a most decisive style, Crothersville, Austin, Scottsburg, and North Vernon. Aurora, Milan, and Vevay are unknown quantities, and as they have met only teams in their own vicinities, there is little ground for comparison. With the possible runner up, none of them is considered exceptionally strong. Madison has only a mediocre team this year, and is not considered dangerous.

Only one game remains on the Seymour schedule before the tournament, that with Brownstown tonight. Although this will be the first meeting of these teams this season, Seymour should win by a wide margin. The local team has developed a smooth scoring machine and has won a big majority of its games. Summer, forward, is a remarkably fast man on the floor and a sharpshooter on both long and short chances at the basket, while Ackerman, guard, is another exceptionally good man on defense and offense.

OH! MY BACK!

The Expression of Many a Kidney Sufferer in Rushville.

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen, stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Doan's Kidney Pills revive sluggish kidneys—relieve aching backs. Here's Rushville proof:

Taylor M. Loyd, 940 W. Third St., Rushville, says: "My back ached steadily and at times was so weak that I could hardly be about. The kidney secretions were first too frequent in passage, then again too seldom. I used about four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Fox Bros. Drug Store and they did just as recommended, relieving me in a short time."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Loyd had. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement)

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOOTHER

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

THIS is to tell the People, that Goodrich "BARE-FOOT-RUBBER" Value lies not in its COLOR but in its composition.

It lies in the especially devised Texture, Flexibility, Cling-quality, Stretch, Lightness and Resilience of that "Barefoot Rubber" which, through years of Research, WE developed to match the marvellous Flexibility, Resilience and Power-conservation of our two-layer-Cord "Sivertown" Tires.

Color alone would have been little help in making "Sivertown" Treads stand-up in the tremendous ENDURANCE Tests which the 100-Mile-per-hour-Races of 1915 provided.

And Color alone,—Black, White, Red, or Gray—can do little for the Consumer who buys a "Me-too" Black-Tread Tire, of imitated make, on the assumption that all Black-Tread Tires are likely to be made of same materials.

THE marvellous "Barefoot Rubber" now used in Goodrich FABRIC Tires (as well as in Goodrich "Sivertowns") is black only because we elected that color, primarily for distinction and association with our SILVERTOWN CORD Tires.

When, therefore, the usual crop of "flattering" Imitations sprouts upon the Market DON'T assume that OTHER Black-Tread Tires have in them the "BARE-FOOT-RUBBER" which made the enormous ENDURANCE of Sivertown Cord Tires possible in the 90 to 103 Mile-per-hour Races of 1914-15.

No Tires on the Market, Size for Size, and Type for Type, are LARGER than Goodrich, and none more generously good, at any price.

"Barefoot Rubber" is now made into Goodrich FABRIC Tires,—Goodrich "Sivertown Tires,"—Goodrich Inner Tubes,—Goodrich Truck Tires,—Goodrich Motor Cycle Tires,—Goodrich Bicycle Tires,—and Goodrich Rubber Boots, Overshoes, Soles and Heels.

Get a sliver of it from your nearest Goodrich Dealer or Branch.

Tooth Loose? Watch out for Pyorrhea!

When you find a tooth that gives back and forth, even just a little, see your dentist at once.

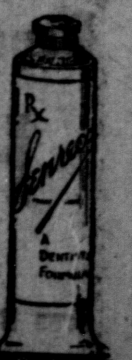

He will find conditions which you might overlook. He will find a gum recession, even though slight, where the gums have pulled away from the teeth. And he will tell you that you have the dread disease pyorrhea.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. ## Things Look Dark For Drug Store Blondes Now As Price Of Peroxide Keeps Advancing

Things look as dark as the prospects of a defeated candidate the day after election. The price of peroxide has gone up, is going up, and, in all probability, will keep on going up. Just put this terrible state of affairs down as another one of the horrors of war. It's to blame. Some of the pharmaceutical constituents of peroxide come from the war zone—and there ain't none any more.

The peroxide crop is another that has been ruined by bursting shells and shrapnel, and the poor peasant peroxide pickers are either in the army or have left their peroxide crops and gone hastily away from there.

The situation is a serious one for volunteer blondes. Some of the burlesque beauties are in a panic. Can any one imagine a "Bouffant Bouquet of Blonde Beauties" with their locks beginning to show a kind of greenish-yellowish tinge, due to a famine in peroxide?

Ham sandwiches, room rent, rouge, and fur trimmings all have gone up in price, and what's a poor honest workin' gal to do when they kate the peroxide like that? Huh? Ain't it awful? It is. A dame keeps on touchin' up her hair for a couple years, and she has to keep it up good and steady, or, believe me, Myrtle, it turns as green around the edges as an oyster that has strayed too far from home. Then along comes Fate, disguised as a peroxide shortage—and there you are. It's just crool, crool, crool!

There will be considerable rooting around done in medicine closets and other receptacles, as time goes on, in the hope of resurrecting a bottle or two in which a few teaspoonsful of peroxide may still be lurking. The price, according to one wholesale drug store, has gone up 200 per cent in the last two months.

But the brunette—she should shed a tear over the light that failed! It will be a great day for the brunette, when all the imitation blondes, who have long got all the attention, begin to show sort of celery-colored! And as for the real, regular blonde—she who does not get it out of a bottle—she will be a feminine orchid, the rarest of all plants, and will be able to command fabulous prices on the stage as "One of the Four Original Blondes in Captivity."

Oh, well—there's always things to darken one's hair, anyway, and better be dark haired—at least, until the war is over—than to have hair that looks like a brass plate that needs shining. Please pass the sage and walnut stain!

CHAPLIN FINALLY ALLOWED TO DIRECT OWN SCENARIOS

No American Picture Producer Understood His Peculiar Style of Comedy Well Enough to Work Out the Stuff Correctly.

(This is a continuation of Charlie Chaplin's life story. It was written by Harry C. Carr, who recently achieved fame as a war correspondent for the Los Angeles Times. No contribution to "movie" literature has created so much interest among film "fans" as this simple, straightforward account of the life history of the world's most famous comedian.—Editor.)

CHAPTER V.

The end of it was that Chaplin was finally allowed to direct his own scenarios. No American picture director understood his peculiar style of comedy well enough to work out the stuff. In another chapter I will tell about Chaplin's work and his methods as a director.

Chaplin's first big hit as a director of his own work was "Dough and Dynamite." This was started as a part of the scenario afterward known as the "Pangs of Love." In his rather aimless way of directing, without any scenario, Chaplin and Mr. Conklin began working up a play in which both he and Conklin were in love with the landlady of a boarding house and stuck hatpins into each other through a curtain to interrupt one another's courtship. They decided that they both ought to be workmen of some kind and decided upon being bakers. As part of the play they worked up a scene in a bake shop. This turned out to be so funny that they finally changed the whole idea and made two different scenarios.

As a director-actor at the Keystone, Chaplin had the reputation of being the most generous star in the movie business. Every comedian was allowed to grab all the laughs he could get.

Becomes the Rage.

His work began making a tremendous impression. Everyone began talking about the funny man. People who never went to the movies before were drawn by the accounts of the new comedian.

Naturally, the other movie companies took notice, and Chaplin got several big offers. One from the Essanay was so big that he did not feel justified in refusing. When his contract expired with the Keystone, he changed companies. He went with the understanding that he was to have full swing in his work; direct all his own scenarios and do pretty much as he pleased.

The first of the Essanay work was done in Chicago. His first Essanay film was "His New Joke." After that he put on a two-reeler, "His Night Out." Chaplin then insisted on moving back to California. The picture conditions didn't suit him in the middle West. On returning to the coast, he went to the Essanay studio at Niles.

In a separate chapter there will be an account of his adventures at this rural studio. He produced "The Tramp" at Niles. This is regarded in some ways as the most remarkable step forward ever made in moving-picture comedy.

By this time a perfect storm of fame had struck Chaplin. To tell the truth, it seemed to scare more than anything else. He used to say to his intimate friends: "I can't understand all this stuff. I am just a little nickel comedian trying to make people laugh. They act as though I were the king of England." Chaplin even to this day is much alarmed over being so famous. He says his reputation can't last.

But he began to suffer the penalties of the great. He was asked to speak at banquets; to lead parades; to referee prize fights. When the baseball season opened, it was announced that Chaplin would throw the first ball.

Charlie's Chicago Censor.

Charlie was pursued like a wounded hare by all kinds of people with all kinds of business propositions. If half the life insurance agents who were on his trail could be gathered into an army, there wouldn't be any danger of a war with Germany. Real estate agents wanted him to buy houses. Inventors wanted him to take stock in their discoveries. About a million people wrote him letters. Many of them were mash letters. One young lady in Chicago undertook the job of censoring all his work. Every day of her life she wrote Chaplin a letter, commenting critically on some of his latest films. Sometimes she complimented them; sometimes she roasted them unmercifully.

Chaplin has about as much business system as a chicken. When his friends came to see him at his hotel they found him sitting helplessly behind a pile of letters. Finally some of his friends prevailed on him to hire a secretary. Wherefore a severe young man with glasses now opens Charlie's mash letters.

One sort of pest scared Chaplin to death. This was the auto agent. They wanted him to buy their cars; to be photographed in their cars, and to write in endorsements of their cars. But Charlie was adamant. He wouldn't listen to any of them. He told them he had an aversion to cars on principle and when he retired he was going to have an old white horse and buggy and a ranch. The truth is, Charlie had once been bitten by the automobile bug.

While he was with the Keystone, Chaplin fell for the blandishments of an auto agent and came out one day nervously driving a runabout. He had some weird experiences with that car. He never could learn how the thing worked. He knew how it started, but he never could remember—at least in times of emergency—what you did when you wanted the thing to stop.

Auto Advice at $75 Per Lesson.

One day while he was parading the boulevards with his vehicle, Chaplin came to the intersection of two crowded streets. The traffic cop majestically gave the signal for the car to stop. Charlie reached for the thingamajig and pulled the wrong lever. The car bounded blithely forward. The cop waved his club and that was all he did before the auto struck him amidships and mopped up the floor with him. They picked up the fragments of the officer of the law. They also picked up Chaplin and took him to the police station, where they advised him to learn how to manage his car and charged him $75 for the advice.

Another time, Charlie was driving in through the big front gate at the Keystone and got too near one of the posts. He had been used to sailing small boats. When a small boat gets too near the wharf the thing to do is to drop the tiller and fend off by pushing against the wharf. Charlie thought this ought to apply equally well to a car. So when he saw he was going to bump the gate, he dropped the steering wheel and tried to push off from the post. The results were sensational and startling. Another time, Charlie's car was on the side of a hill. It started to roll down and Chaplin tried to stop it by grabbing the hind wheels. Results equally startling and sensational.

When Chaplin discovered that new tires for his motor cost $75 each, his soul called "Enough," and he returned to street cars. Since then he has been a mighty poor prospect for an auto agent.

SENATE SUSTAINS PRESIDENT BUT IS "GAGGED" IN DOING IT

Republican Senators Protest When
They Are Not Allowed to Explain Their Votes.

Gore Unexpectedly Introduces One
be Cause For War.

Senator Sherman Terms Senate Action "Cowardice, Evasion, Cring-
ing." Borah "Degredation."

(By United Press.)
Washington, March 3.—The senate today formally gave notice to the world that it would stand behind President Wilson in his negotiations with Germany. By a vote of 68 to 24 the senate voted down a substitute resolution introduced by Senator Gore.

The action was taken without debate being allowed. Just ten minutes after the fight on the resolution began, Vice-president Marshall announced the vote.

By the single roll call the senate swept aside all amendments and resolutions hampering the president.
By motion they were all included.

Those who voted against tabling the resolution, thereby voting to take the international situation out of the hands of the president were: Borah, Chamberlain, Clapp, Cummins, Fall, Galliger, Gronna, Jones, LaFollette, McCumber, Norris, O'Gorman, Sherman and Works. Senator Kern voted to uphold the president.

Senator Borah protested vigorously against "gagging" the senate when he was not allowed to present reasons for his vote.

There were several congressmen who held the view that by today's action the senate gave the president full power in foreign negotiations even up to the point of war.

Senator James called up Senator Gore's resolution. Gore offered an amendment asking that the sinking of an armed ship by a German submarine should be deemed cause for war with Germany.

The vote for the president, including as it did those of Gore and Stone, was the result of the amendment.
Gore's surprising and unexplained eleventh hour move when offering what was practically a new resolution and an ultimatum to the central powers, caused several to change their vote. Many who favored Gore's original resolution voted to kill the substitute.

The vote itself came with practically no debate, but pent up oratory burst forth a little later, when the senate theoretically was discussing a water power bill. Most of it was a statement of doubt as to exactly what the senate had done in its vote.
Republican senators bitterly commented on the fact that the senate had been "gagged" and no opportunity given to vote on the merits of Gore's measure.

The senate rules require immediate vote and no discussion, on such a motion. The vote went through as per schedule but the storm burst later.

Borah termed the senate action
"degredation." Sherman termed it
"cowardice evasion cringing."

The actual vote came up on Gore's substitute resolution.

President Wilson received word of the senate's action while the cabinet was in session. All of the officials

Wilson Pleased

Washington, March 3.—It was stated at the White House this afternoon that the proposition submitted to the senate today and the vote taken thereon, met with its entire approval.

expressed satisfaction over the result and believe that it is a forecast of what the house will do when a vote is taken in that branch.

Efforts to keep the United States out of a foreign conflict, to which it has been nearer during the last few days than any time since the days of McKinley, reached their climax today when the senate met to give notice to the world—and especially to Germany—that a united congress and nation stands behind President Wilson.

The fight in the senate over killing Senator Gore's warning resolution opened at 11:25 o'clock when Senator Stone called it up.

Senate support of the president by a vote of nearly three to one seemed assured from the very first.
The house will also go on record, favoring the president, possibly tomorrow, but probably by a smaller vote.

Action without talk, was the program decided on at a final conference of senate leaders just before the senate opened.

Fully recognizing the opposition they would find in the senate settling any issue without giving each senator an opportunity to express his views, they determined nevertheless not to risk starting what might develop into a typical, drawn-out senate debate.

The program was simply to table
the Gore resolution.

There was to be no resolution endorsing the president. The leaders held that by tabling the principle resolution of opposition, they would have erased from the senate records any hint that the body was not behind the president.

GERMANS CAPTURE DOUAUMONT TOWN

Take One Thousand Allies After Fu-
rious Struggle, Berlin
Announces.

DRIVING TOWARDS VERDUN

(By United Press.)

London, March 3.—German troops have captured the village of Doua-umont, four miles northeast of Verdun and just outside Fort Doua-umont after a furious struggle, taking one thousand prisoners, the German war office announced this afternoon.

Renewing their offensive with heavy blows, the Germans are driving towards Verdun west and southwest of Douaumont, it is reported.
German fliers have bombarded the city and Germany infantry is attempting to cut off the French holding Pepper Heights to the north.
The French war office admitted that the Tuetons have penetrated the French lines at Douaumont, after suffering "cruel losses," but declaring the struggle for the village is continuing.

MORE WORK FOR ELECTION BOARD

Will Have to Appoint Nineteen
Judges Lacking in List of Progressive Appointments.

If Judges Can't Find Progressives,
it is a Question Just What
They Should do.

The board of election commissioners with all its onerous duties will have the additional task of selecting nineteen progressive judges, if they can be found, to serve at the primary next Tuesday. The list of progressive judges as filed late last night by Lester Smith, county chairman, was short just nineteen of the judges this party is entitled to under the law.

Under the law the Progressives are entitled to a judge at each precinct. When Smith filed his list it was found that only twelve precincts were represented. Whether he failed to find enough progressives to fill out the list or did not have the necessary time, was not made known. He handed the list to Clerk Taylor as that official was leaving the court house last night and stated that it was complete. Upon examination, the list was found to be nineteen short.

Yesterday was the last day under the law for filing the nominations for election officials with the board of commissioners. The law provides that in case the county chairman fails to make the selections, the board of election commissioners shall fill the list. The law also states that the board shall fill the list from members of that party.
According to this, it is up to the election board to select nineteen progressive judges, and this in itself will be no small job. Samuel L.
Trahan, Democratic chairman, completed his list of election officers early yesterday afternoon. Both the Republicans and Democrats were careful not to select any member that was related to any candidates.

Just what the election board will do in case it fails to find the Progressive judges is not known. This question was to be taken up today by the board. At least one of the Progressive judges named by the county chairman is related to a candidate and is therefore disqualified.
The Progressive judges are as follows:

Washington township, No. 1.—
Fred A. Bills; No. 2.—Curtha Wagoner.
Center township, No. 1.—Glen H.
Kirkham; No. 2.—Ed Retherford.
Union township, No. 1.—Eddie Myers; No. 2.—John F. Mapes.
Anderson township, No. 1.—Cash King.
Rushville township, No. 1.—Lester
Smith; No. 3.—Wade Sherman; No.
5.
Joseph Mary, No. 7; Joe Endicott, No. 10; William F. Taylor.
The Democratic appointments are as follows:

Rushville.
No. 1.—Judge, Ed Billings; Clerk, Edward Lushel; Sheriff, George Fleener, Jr.
No. 2.—Judge, S. C. Kirkpatrick; Clerk, Tom Cauley; Sheriff, William Cook.
No. 3.—Judge, John B. Morris; Clerk, Charles G. Newkirk; Sheriff, William Winship.
No. 4.—Judge, B. A. Black; Clerk, Ralph Clarkson; Sheriff, John Kelley.
No. 5.—Judge, Frank Cross; Clerk, John Shanahan; Sheriff,
James Shanahan.
No. 6.—Judge, Omer Green; Clerk,

LARGE CROWDS ARE THE RULE

People Continue to Pack Places
Wherever James E. Watson
Delivers a Speech.

GOOD AUDIENCE AT FRANKLIN

Speaks at Edinburg Thursday Night,
Spends Today in Carroll County
—Saturday in Madison.

Large crowds are the rule wherever James E. Watson delivers a campaign speech. It was the case of both of his meetings in the neighoring county of Johnson where he spoke yesterday afternoon at Franklin and at night at Edinburg.
Mr. Watson spent today in Carroll county and will be in Madison county Saturday for a speech at Alexandria in the afternoon and one at Alexandria at night.

He spoke at the Franklin opera house, which was jammed with people, on Thursday afternoon. Approximately twenty leading Republicans of Johnson county were on the stage and I. Newt. Brown, who is well known here, presided. Mr.
Watson was introduced by Ivory
Drybread, an attorney of Franklin.

In spite of the bad weather, the Greenfield Reporter says Watson had a large-sized audience at Greenfield Wednesday night. The crowd included many Democrats and a number of Progressives. Though Mr.
Watson has been making many speeches every day for several weeks, his voice was in fairly good shape and every word he spoke was heard by every person in the room.

His speech was a regular party speech from the Republican standpoint, and he declared that the first plank in the Republican national platform this year will be a declaration in favor of the protective tariff.
He declared that the principle of protection put into effect under Republican administration had made the United States the wonder of the civilized world. He insisted that the revenue derived from the Underwood law of the Wilson administration was insufficient to meet the running expenses of the government.

He said the present industrial activity in this country was due solely to the manufacture of munitions of war, and were it not for the war this country would be in the condition that it was under the last administration of President Cleveland. He criticized President Wilson for his policies of "watchful waiting" and declared he was not a man for president at times such as now exist and the conditions that are sure to exist for the next four year. He made a strong appeal to Republican voters for their support in the primary next Tuesday.

GOWDY'S HEALTH IMPROVED

He Expects to Leave For Home
While Feeling Better.

Reports have been in circulation here that John K. Gowdy, who has been spending the winter at St.
Petersburg, Florida, is in very poor health and wants to get home at-once. It was stated today by those in position to know that he was improved now and that he was expecting to leave for home in a few days. It was reported that he had asked a local physician to come to St. Petersburg and accompany him home, but this was denied.

BELGIAN LETTER IS TRANSLATED

John Abercrombie, Who Once Lived
in Paris, Finds Epistle to C. G.
Clark is French.

Suspected Sale of Embroidered
Flour Sacks May be Scheme
to Defraud.

John Abercrombie, who spent several years in Paris as secretary to John K. Gowdy, when the latter was consul-general from the United States, translated the letter which C. G. Clark received with the highly embroidered sack as a souvenir. Mr.
Clark was largely instrumental in sending a large quantity of flour from here to the relief of Belgian war sufferers. The letter was in French and is as follows:

"Arriving from Belgium with a collection of Flemish pictures (oil paintings) and experiencing a lot of trouble in selling them, and not being able to exhibit them anywhere for the lack of money, we thought we might be able to sell you a collection of (flour) sacks which we ourselves bought for the benefit of the war orphans. That would give us (financial) means (resources) enough to rent a room for (exhibiting and) selling our paintings ourselves because the merchants here wish to give us little or nothing for them. Thinking that you may be able to understand our dilemma (difficult situation) we are sending you herewith a sack which was sent by you yourselves to Belgium full of flour, and we are returning it to you, embroidered by the hands of Belgian women that you may have a nice souvenir of your charity. Trusting, sir, that you will give our letter your attention, we send you our sincere best wishes."

MR. and MRS. GEORGE.

49 West 115th Street, New York.
The idea was suggested here today, after the letter was translated, that possibly it was a scheme to dupe people, in view of the fact that it was not being done under the direction of the Belgian relief commission in the United States.

Such a graft was uncovered in New York Wednesday when two men, declaring themselves to be German lieutenants, were arrested for misusing the mails to prey on charitably inclined people.

MILROY CHURCH REJECTS ALL BIDS

Christian Congregation There Finds
Estimates Submitted Today.
Are Too High.

LIKELY TO BE READVERTISED

Bids for the construction of the new building to be erected by the Milroy Christian church were received today, but all were rejected as the building committee stated they were too high. The committee was still in session late this afternoon, but it was expected that the bids would have to be advertised again.

The church expects to spend between $12,000 and $14,000 on the building and equipment, and the bids received this afternoon were all higher than these amounts. The church has raised the sum of $12,- 000 with which to erect the new building. A total of five firms bid for the contract today.

MORTGAGES TO BE FORECLOSED

Final Steps to Dispose of Jacksonian
Receivership Case Are Taken
Today.

TO SELL AT SHERIFF'S SALE

in Potts Case.

Final steps towards the disposition of the Jacksonian receivership case were taken today when the court ordered both mortgages against the plant foreclosed. The first mortgage is held by Elihu Price, Sylvester C. Kirkpatrick and others.
This mortgage must be satisfied in the sum of $4,892.

Another mortgage held by the Mergenthaler Linotype company amounts to $1,400. The next step will be the issuing of the execution and then the plant will be sold at the sheriff's sale. The court heard the evidence in the case this morning.

Judge Sparks found for the J. T.
Barlow company against John Ryon on an account in the sum of $496.54.
Mrs. Ryon was also a party to the suit but this was dismissed as to her.

It was announced today that Judge Alonzo Blair of the Shelby circuit court would be here Monday to hear the argument for a new trial in the case of Bertha Potts against Earl Churchill. This case was decided for the defendant in December, 1914, but has been hanging fire on the motion for a new trial.

In the petition of Theodore Holden for the correction of a will record, Judge Sparks found for the plaintiff and ordered the will record corrected as petitioned.

WILL CONVENE THURSDAY

Grand Jury is Called For First Session This Term.

Judge Sparks this morning ordered the grand jury to report next Thursday. This will be the first meeting of the grand jury this term of court. Just what the grand jury is called for could not be learned.
It was intimated that the grand jury might take up the "blind tiger" case against Mart Clevenger, but this is not likely, as the affidavit against him is believed sufficient.

MEETING AGAIN TONIGHT.

A meeting of party workers will be held tonight at Republican headquarters. A large attendance is desired. The Republicans have been meeting by wards this week, but the meeting tonight is open to all party workers and those interested.

CHIEF ENGINEER SAYS WONDERFUL

Minis Chancy, of Marion, Gives Tantalus Credit For His Recent Improvement.

Marion, Ind., March 3.—Minis Chancy, a man of unquestioned honesty and integrity of this city, who lives at 1806 West Second street and who is chief engineer for the Marion Chair Co., recently said regarding Tantalus, the Master Medicine:

"I have suffered with liver and kidney trouble for some time. A few weeks ago I contracted a severe cold, narrowly escaping la grippe. I wheezed, hawked and expectorated most of the time. Frequent headaches, a very poor appetite and pains in my back made me lack energy and ambition, and I was generally depressed.

"Tantalus, recommended to me by a friend, has given me almost complete relief in a few days. The cold is entirely broken up and la grippe symptoms have vanished. My appetite is fine now, and I am gaining strength and energy. My ambition has returned and my spirits are improved. Tantalus is the most wonderful medicine ever sold. It gets all the credit for my improvement."

Tantalus, which Mr. Chancy recommends so highly, is an appetizer, invigorant, tonic and system purifier. It is especially beneficial for stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, rheumatism, sleeplessness, colds, coughs and the like.

Tantalus is sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. WOLCOTT'S drug store.

Union Workmen Indorse Candidacy of J. W. Lontz

For Democratic Nomination as Representative in Congress

A committee appointed by the Moulders' Union of Richmond, Ind., has found John M. Lontz, candidate for the Democratic nomination as representative in congress, a man who has always been fair to labor and who can be depended upon to champion its cause. Lontz's labor record was investigated (and by a committee of men not in his employ) because he is one of the largest manufacturers of lawn mowers in the United States.

The results of the committee's investigation are contained in the following report it caused to be published in the Richmond Labor Herald of March 3, 1916:

"To the Editor of the Labor Herald:

"Dear Sir and Brother—We, the undersigned committee of Union Moulders, requested of John M. Lontz, candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress in the Sixth District, to meet with us, which he readily arranged to do, February 27.

Former Congressman Johnson Urges Nomination of Lontz

In a letter addressed to Horace G. Yergin, attorney at law, Newcastle, Ind., former congressman Henry U. Johnson, one of the most brilliant men who ever represented the Sixth district in congress, vigorously indorses the candidacy of John M. Lontz for the Democratic congressional nomination. Mr. Johnson asserts that Mr. Lontz as the Democratic candidate can command the support of many Republicans and former Progressives. His letter to Mr. Yergin follows:

My Dear Yergin:—Have the Democratic friends in Henry county stopped to think carefully on the Democratic nomination for congress?

"Whoever is the Republican nominee, Lontz will poll many more votes against him than Gray can possibly command. In fact, Gray has lost strength in Wayne county very perceptibly. John M. Lontz is a popular man in Wayne county. His candidacy has been very heartily received by our people irrespective of party.

"We had a long talk with Mr. Lontz, and we wish to say, from the statements he made to us, that he is very fair to organized labor.

"The wages he is paying his employees are far better than the average wages paid men in that class of work (manufacture of lawn mowers).

"Therefore, it is up to Organized Labor to be fair to this man who tries to be fair to it.

"What labor is working for is what Lontz is working for.

"Therefore, the committee is very well satisfied with the meeting it had with Lontz in regard to his views on Organized Labor.

Yours in Union,

GILBERT HERR,
R. E. NIEMAN
WILLIAM DINGLEY."

LUNGS OF A BATTLESHIP.

Ventilation is a Serious Problem in Building War Vessels.

One of the most difficult problems in building a battleship is to secure satisfactory ventilation. She is a very complicated creature, made up of so many steel boxes, large and small, for the accommodation of officers, men, coal, ammunition and stores, dotted here and there with so many steel ladders, automatic lifts, steel bulkheads and water tight doors, varied here and there by miles of electric wires belonging to lights, telephones, bells and motors, to say nothing of the endless mileage of pipes for flooding, draining, pumping, fresh water, fresh air or compressed air and speaking tubes.

First in importance comes the venting of the boiler and engine rooms. When you begin to think of gangs of coal black demons working away in the bowels of the ship at a temperature of 120 degrees when, too, you commence to realize that unless the furnaces receive their required draft the speed of the battleship drops to below that of her sisters in the squadron, you appreciate the importance of the steam driven fans to the furnaces and boiler rooms. The supply of air comes down through large water tight funnels, which are continued right up to the weather deck, armored gratings being provided at the protective deck.

For ventilating engine rooms large electric fans are employed. So, too, the coal bunkers have to be ventilated, owing to the gas which the coal gives off. This gas when mixed with air forms an explosive, so in order to prevent the possibility of injury to men or ship supply and exhaust pipes are fitted in such a manner as to cause a current of air.—Pearson's Weekly.

Only Nation Without Budget.

We are the only civilized nation that hasn't a budget system. France, Germany, Russia, Japan, England, Italy, Spain, Rumania, Serbia, Portugal, Bulgaria and Venezuela—all these countries and many more have budgets. In each country, that is, certain responsible officers prepare a definite plan for doing things, estimate the cost of executing it and suggest means for raising the money. There is only one important nation that has no business plan, and that is the one that has chiefly distinguished itself as a nation of business men—the United States.—World's Work.

Human Mystery.

Almost every man believes in the mystery of woman. I do not. For men are also mysterious to women; women are quite as puzzled by our stupidity as by our subtlety. I do not believe that there is either a male or a female mystery; there is only the mystery of mankind.—W. L. George in Atlantic Monthly.

Amusements

The Mystic will show a three act feature "West Wind" for the first picture tonight. It is taken from the story of the same name by Cyrus Townsend Brady. Ned Finley, Darwin Karr, Eleanor Woodruff and Harry Northup are featured. In addition to this three reel feature the one act comedy "Matilda's Fling" will be shown. Tomorrow night the three act feature "Hearts Ablaze" will be shown.

The Princess offers the five reel feature "Helene of the North" for the program tonight. Marguerite Clark is featured. She is presented in the most unique impersonation she has yet assumed throughout her triumphant association with the motion picture art. The subject combines in a decidedly novel manner the cultured atmosphere of aristocratic society circles with the rugged environment of the trackless waste of Canada. Besides these far extremes, the drama sways with uninterrupted fascination, and whether in the limitless wilds, or the warm luxurious drawing room, Marguerite Clark is equally effective and enchanting.

Lane, the singing evangelist who is to conduct the music, arrived today. New song books have been purchased and the plan is to have a large chorus choir to lead the singing. The pastor is to do the preaching. The cottage prayer meetings which have been held this week, have been well attended and the outlook is for a good meeting.

CONDITION CRITICAL.

The condition of Charles Rasor remained critical throughout the day. No hope is being maintained for his recovery and his death is expected almost any time. He is only conscious at times.

SOME CHICKENS.

A record for the sale of chickens in Rush county was believed to have been established yesterday in Milroy when Mrs. Leonard Booth sold 32 hens to Fred Mock, a poultry dealer, receiving $34.71. The combined weight of the hens was 267. This record surpasses that made in Raleigh a few days ago when Mrs. Ed Smith sold 48 chickens to William Mathews for $48.30.

The sixteenth birthday of Ulysses Brown, colored, was celebrated at his home yesterday when fourteen of his friends were invited into his home and spent a pleasant afternoon. He was the recipient of several pretty gifts and refreshments were served to the guests.

A Simple Way To Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

ANCIENT BAGDAD.

Bits About the Enchanted City of the "Arabian Nights."

Immortalized by Haroun-al-Raschid, in the story of the "Arabian Nights," Bagdad, which has a population of about 150,000, was built on the ruins of an ancient Babylonian city dating back to 2000 B. C. Records have been found on ancient bricks establishing its early date.

Ever since the days of Haroun-al-Raschid the Jews have been the leading figures in the commercial world of Bagdad. There are 50,000 of them, with about 8,000 Chaldean (or heretical) Christians. The remainder of the population is made up of Persians, Turks, Armenians, Arabs and Kurds.

Sindbad the Sailor was born at Bagdad, and all his marvelous adventures begin by his going down the Tigris to Bussorah (the modern Busra).

The city stands on both sides of the Tigris, the two parts being connected by the famous bridge of boats, 220 yards long. A brick wall, five miles in circumference and forty feet high, surrounds Bagdad.

The city contains upward of 100 mosques, though barely twenty of them are in use. The houses generally are old, dirty and ugly outside, but the vaulted ceilings, rich moldings, inlaid mirrors and massive gildings bring back to the recollection of the traveler "the golden prime of the good Haroun-al-Raschid."

The streets are narrow, crooked, unpaved and dirty, full of ruts and strewn with garbage, which, however, is for the most part removed by dogs, the public scavengers in the east.—Pearson's Weekly.

An Exhilarating Bath.

"Many doctors are now discarding the stronger alcohol in ordering baths," says the Farm and Fireside, "and are prescribing the more agreeable bay rum, which is made in Japan from the distillation of rum and the leaves of the bayberry tree. If you want a pleasant, exhilarating bath use this in dilution suiting to your condition. For bathing the sick it seems to have a longer and more stimulating and tonic effect than whisky or alcohol."

Really a Watson Paper

A glance at the front page and editorial page of the Marion Chronicle of a recent issue after James E. Watson had delivered a speech there removed all doubts as to where that newspaper stands in the primary contest for United States senator and serves to contradict the statements of the New press agents that all of the newspapers are for New. Some folks get the idea that there aren't any newspapers outside of Indianapolis.

Watson's visit called for a display of a two-line headline across the top of the page and a reproduction of his speech in bold, black-face type. Some of the pungent statements from the Marion Chronicle story read like this:

James E. Watson was in Marion last night.

James E. Watson spoke in Marion last night.

James E. Watson SAID SOMETHING in Marion last night.

And with the words he uttered he proved conclusively that the Democratic party is doomed to defeat in November, 1916.

HE PROVED that the Democratic party is one of destruction, and not construction.

HE PROVED that the foreign policy of the present administration is a grim tragedy.

HE PROVED that the administration has turned back in every principle enunciated in the Democratic platform of 1912.

HE PROVED that the Democratic office-holding and failure are synonymous.

HE PROVED that the G. O. P. WILL SWEEP the nation in November beyond the shadow of a doubt.

Incidentally, in the same issue, R. T. St. John, who is familiarly known as the G. O. P. nestor of Grant county, contributed an article to the Chronicle, which was highly complimentary of Watson. He says:

A few articles have appeared lately in the newspapers of this state referring to the campaign of 1908.

Every person who was a voter in 1908 knows what were the factors in that campaign. By the platform of the Republican and Democratic parties, county local option was made the prominent issue of that campaign. By the action of the special session of the legislature, the question of county option was not fairly presented to the voters, and Mr. Watson went through that campaign against most discouraging odds. He did not falter, but made one of the most memorable speeches in the history of the state. He was not only a great speaker, but a great thinker. He was not only a great speaker, but a great thinker. He was not only a great speaker, but a great thinker.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED AND SORE FEET

Way go limping around with aching, pulled-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet?

"Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swellings and draws the soreness and misery right out of feet that chafe, smart and burn. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, callouses and bunions. "Tiz" is glorious for tired, aching, sore feet. No more shoe tightness—no more foot torture.

We are authorized to announce the name of Charles C. Brown as a candidate for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket, subject to the decision of the primary election, March 7, 1916.

I will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress before the Primary, March 7th, and as the duties of my office and attention to important measures before Congress will prevent my returning to my district, I take this means to ask the voters for their support.

PINLY H. GRAY.

BRUNK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

political campaigns in the history of our state. He was made the target of the opposition and bore the burden of that fight as very few men could have done. Of course, he suffered in that campaign, but he did not complain. He manfully fought the battle of the party. It all becomes any one familiar with that campaign to attempt to use its results to injure. Mr. Watson at this time. He should have commendation and praise, and not adverse criticism, for his magnificent campaign.

Will some of these gentlemen who are trying to prove all things by figures tell us what man in Indiana would have made a more brilliant campaign or a better showing than did Mr. Watson in 1908? Ability, integrity and a pleasing personality are three requisites for a candidate and a representative of the people. Does not Mr. Watson possess these essential qualifications to an unusual degree?

Mr. Watson, for many years, has spoken in every county in Indiana. Will any one say that he ever injured the cause he represented or that the voters were not stronger in their republicanism after hearing him? His ability to present and defend Republican doctrines is recognized throughout the nation itself. These facts are so well known by the voters that the recital seems unnecessary. Yet, in the heat of political contests, the friends of candidates sometimes allow their zeal to carry them too far and erroneously imagine they are rendering their favorite a service by indulging in unfriendly criticism of opposing candidates.

Unwise and unworthy methods should not be used in nomination contests, but we should all recognize our party obligation, and realize that party harmony means party strength.

Any voter in Rush county who wants to help nominate the Republican ticket, no matter what his past party affiliations may have been, he does not need to lose any sleep over it. He is doubly reassured that the Republicans of Rush county are agreed that any man who wants to vote in the Republican primary has that privilege and they will not question his intentions for a minute.

President Wilson has sent word to congressional leaders that he will not accept a compromise. His edict that his foreign policy as concerns the German submarine order be supported has gone forth. It wouldn't do for President Wilson to get into a law suit.

The all important question of whether March came in like a lion or a lamb has never yet been settled to most people's satisfaction.

1808-1879

John B. Dillon has rightly been called the "Father of Indiana History." Born in West Virginia, he studied the printers trade in Ohio, and removed to Loganport, this state, 1830. Shortly after being admitted to the bar, he left the legal profession, and turned to the study of history. No more careful or painstaking writer can be found in the whole school of historical writers than John B. Dillon. In 1859 his monumental work, "The History of Indiana," appeared. The accuracy and conscientious research embodied in the book, marks it a model for historical writers. From 1845 to 1850, Dillon was state librarian. He later held other public positions, such as assistant secretary of state, secretary of the state board of agriculture, and clerk of the house committee on military affairs. Dillon also won notice as a poet, being the author of "The Burial of the Beautiful," "The Orphan's Lament," and "The Funeral of the Year."

PATRICK J. LYNCH

Indorsed Throughout the District. His Home County is for Him.

"We, the Republicans of Henry County in mass convention recognize in Patrick J. Lynch an able and enthusiastic advocate of the Republican Party, an honorable citizen of Henry County and a fit and proper person to represent the Sixth Congressional District in the Congress of the United States and therefore we recommend his candidacy for that office."

The Press of the District is Strong for Lynch

Patrick J. Lynch, candidate for the Congressional nomination on the Republican ticket at the coming Primary has completed an active and thorough campaign in all the counties of the Sixth District except Wayne. He opened a ten days' canvass in this county Thursday, speaking at Williamsburg Thursday afternoon and at Bethel Thursday night. Mr. Lynch is an earnest and eloquent speaker and a worker for the success of his Party at all times. To the vigorous and untiring campaign made by him under the most unfavorable conditions in 1914, is due much credit for the splendid gains made by the Party, which brought success to many of the county officers elected in the entire District—Cambridge City Tribune.

From the Liberty Herald, October 1, 1914.—He is an earnest and able speaker, impressing his hearers as a man of deep conviction and high purposes. He has Republican doctrines well in hand, is courteous in referring to the other parties and is withal a pleasing speaker. He certainly made a favorable impression in Union County with the voters who met and heard him.

From the Brookville American—He (Lynch) stands for the best sort of Republicanism in the district. He has come up from the ranks of labor and knows how to sympathize with the men who use their hands to earn their living. He has no fads or fancies considering government. He believes in a government that will meet exigencies of the times. He believes in just laws that will make a better condition for the working man, that will give the farmer an opportunity to reap the fruits of his toil and will bring to all men the prosperity and happiness which they have the right to expect under the guarantee of the constitution.

Mr. Lynch impresses us as one having a good deal of "Backbone" and the ability to think for himself. He has the reputation of keeping his word and hanging on for what he believes to be right. He will make a Congressman who will worthily represent the Sixth District.

From the New Castle Courier, October 23, 1914.—If you are disgusted with the demoralized condition due to the operation of the Democratic tariff law, vote for P. J. Lynch who is the Sixth District Congressional candidate of the "party of protection."

From the Greencastle Republican, October, 1914.—Although compelled to support himself early in life he availed himself of every opportunity in the way of cultivating his mind and by close application and constant reading he possesses a liberal education and he is a fluent and eloquent speaker. His whole life has been such as to develop and stimulate those qualities so essential to a representative of the people at this particular time of extravagance in public affairs. He has learned the lesson of economy in the practical school of experience. Successful in the management of his own business he knows how to manage public affairs. He is a man for the place and these times. If elected he will do more than just fill his seat in the National House of Representatives. He will give every hour of his time to the practical work of Congress instead of attempting to attract national attention by freak speeches. The people will have a real, practical, effective representative in Congress if they elect P. J. Lynch.

From the New Castle Courier, October 5, 1915.—P. J. Lynch, who is now making a campaign of Henry County in behalf of his candidacy for Congressman from the Sixth District on the Republican ticket is making a most favorable impression. He is an orator of no mean ability and he is telling his audiences which are large and interested, the plain, unvarnished truth about the political situation in the state and nation and he is finding the people ready and anxious to hear it. Mr. Lynch's Republicanism is of the sturdy and unwavering kind. He believes in the policies and principles of his party and when he goes to Washington no one will have any fear as to his stand and vote on Party measures. He stands four square on the Republican platform and he is a protectionist of the first order.

At the time Mr. Lynch opened the campaign in Wayne county in 1914 the Richmond Palladium, Progressive organ said: "The meeting was opened with an address by Mr. Lynch. He is an eloquent speaker and made a big hit with his audience."

Much Has Been Recently Said

in the columns of our local Democratic newspaper, and by some of its political patrons, relative to Section 10 of the wonderful Primary Law as enacted by our Democratic Legislature.

It would seem that they are not willing to accept the ruling of our Supreme Court, as delivered by our own Judge Morris, but they seek to create the impression that no one can safely participate in the selection of any party ticket, which they did not support two years ago.

Judge Morris, speaking for the higher court, says that this may be done under the provisions of Section 10, providing the vote is not challenged. True, he does not declare Section 10 void, but he says that no one can challenge the vote except a member from the party for whose ticket the voter is then seeking to vote. In other words, he says that by failing to challenge the vote, that party waives its objection to the vote in every particular.

It may be that our Democratic Brethren are intending to challenge all such, if any, who thus attempt to vote their ticket. If this be true, it would be indeed a very serious thing for such persons to attempt to vote the Democratic ticket. However, we know of one political party, Republican by name, which will not exercise that right of challenge, and which bids everybody welcome to participate in the naming of its ticket, who expects to support that ticket in November.

The Republican party in Indiana, and in Rush County, presents to the voters a list of candidates of whom we are justly proud. They are able men and well qualified to fill the various offices which they seek. It is the duty of every voter to help select that ticket next Tuesday. You can not avoid the responsibility. The burden is upon you personally. You, alone, can discharge it, and whether or not we are able to land our own favorite sons, or our personal friends, we expect to support the ticket. This is the kind of Republicanism that exists in Rush County.

GERMAN ATTACK "THE REAL THING"

(By United Press.)

Paris, March 3.—Renewal of the severe fighting around Verdun, reported in official dispatches today, convinced French military experts that the present German offensive is "the real thing."

German dead are now strewn about Verdun wood and hills until the fields, from a distance, seem to be covered with a strange, gray-green growth. Not alone because the Tuetons have suffered enormous losses, but for other reasons, Paris critics do not believe the Verdun attacks a feint. French leaders certainly are not unmindful of the possibility of a sudden German thrust in the Champagne or near Paris along the Aisne.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the smile. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "biliousness" and that nagging feeling come from constipation and a clogged liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brows and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Society and Club News

Edited by Miss Frances Frazee.

To the many music lovers and admirers of true art, the news that Grand Opera is actually coming to Rushville was more than welcome. Justly have we boasted of our musical talent and now just as proudly can we boast of the refined taste for the best things in the musical world. The coming of Grand Opera is made possible only by the initiative taken by the Tri Kappas and by the hearty co-operation of the men and women here, who have realized and taken hold of the opportunity to bring the best real art within our reach. And through this talented company of six, we are to hear parts of our favorite operas, for as the soloists give impersonations of their various roles, vocal art is supplemented by dramatic technique; we are to hear the wonderful Skovgaard and, well, words cannot really promise in true colors the treat and the inspiration that is to be ours, when only a week from tonight the event that all society and all music lovers are anticipating with pleasure and eagerness, will be here.

Mrs. Lowell M. Green will entertain the members of the Embroidery club tomorrow afternoon at her home in East Sixth street.

Tri Kappa will have the regular meeting with Mrs. Harry Osborne at home at 717 North Willow street on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Chauncey Duncan received informally yesterday afternoon when several friends came to call on her interesting guest, Miss Helen Johnson of Madison. Miss Johnson and C. Arthur Tatters of Indianapolis, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan for several days, returned to their homes today.

EUCRE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. William Mathew of Raleigh afforded a delightful evening for their thirty guests last evening when progressive eucure was the game of the evening. The spirited contestants spent lively and pleasant hours over the card table. The surroundings for the affair were especially pleasant, a dainty color effect being carried out with bowls of primrose and different colored carnations in slender vases throughout the rooms. Following the card series the guests enjoyed a two course luncheon, which was bounteous as well as delicious.

R. N. A. DANCE

The girls of R. N. A. furnished a good time last evening for their guests when they entertained at the Phi Delta Theta hall with an informal dancing party. Forty couples of dancers filled the floor during the series of dances for which music was furnished by Sherman's Orchestra, which aided materially in the pleasure of the evening. One of the most enjoyable features of the event was the cabaret music furnished by Dr. Hale Pearsey who sang several catchy numbers and was generously applauded. Punch was served during the evening to the guests. Dancers from Indianapolis, Connersville and several other surrounding towns were among the guests, who included Mr. Mathews of Connersville, Miss Rogers of Indianapolis, and Mr. Baker of Connersville.

COUNTRY CLUB.

Another gay evening was furnished for the members of the Country Club last evening when they were

YOUR BRONCHIAL TUBES

When a cold settles in the bronchial tubes, with that weakening, tickling cough, immediate treatment is very important. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present, your head jars with every cough and your chest may ache. This is no time for experimenting or delay—you must get Scott's Emulsion at once to drive out the cold which started the trouble, and it will check the cough by aiding the healing process of the enfeebled membranes.

If you have any symptoms of bronchitis, or even a stubborn cold, always remember that Scott's Emulsion has been relieving this trouble for forty years. It is free from alcohol or drugs. Refuse substitutes.

Scott & Bower, Birmingham, N. Y.

entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ferron Whittinger whose hospitable home is south of the city. Twenty-five of the members gathered from their homes about the country and joined together in the merry round of games, dancing and other amusements which made the evening a busy one. The services of a dainty luncheon brought the pleasant affair to a close.

QUILTING BEE.

The old-fashioned fad of quilting parties have again come into popularity, it seems. Quilting and knotting comforts proved the pleasant entertainment for the guests of Mrs. Robert Hiner of North Main street who entertained informally this afternoon. After a short afternoon which was busily spent, a delicious refreshment was served by the hostess to the guests who included Mrs. A. R. Herkless, Mrs. W. A. Caldwell, Harrison and Miss Kate Chester, of Miss Helen Caldwell, Mrs. Fannie Rising Sun.

LURLINE COUNCIL

Aside from the good time that resulted from the social given by the Lurline Council at the Red Men Hall last evening, financially it was a success also. A lodge meeting opened the evening when about a hundred and fifty members of the Council and Red Men orders were present. Following this the merry crowd were served to refreshments in the dining room, and then the pillow which has been creating a great amount of curiosity as to whom will be the lucky owner, was given to James Smith of Connersville. Lively music was furnished all during the evening by an orchestra. Dancing, old-fashioned games and other lively diversions amused the guests during the remainder of the delightful event. About thirty dollars was cleared as a result of the affair.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Yesterday being the forty-fifth birthday of Wood Bishop, of north of the city, a jolly crowd of his friends and neighbors came in upon him in the afternoon, greatly to his surprise and pleasure. The contents of their baskets filled the table with a menu, the numbers of which defy enumeration. Placed upon the dining table, it was served in buffet style. After this hearty repast, cards and dancing to Victrola music made a lively evening for the guests who included Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bishop and family, Mrs. Nancy Furry, Mr. and Mrs. Greely Maury, Mr. and Mrs. Derby Green and family, Rice Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bishop, Mrs. Rachel Ginn, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clifford.

GUEST DAY

About sixty-five members of the C. W. B. M. of Little Flatrock and their guests from the Orange Auxiliary were present yesterday at the guest day meeting of the society that was held in the church in the afternoon. The church presented an unusually home-like and airy appearance thanks to the pretty bouquets of sweet peas and ferns that were used to decorate it appropriately for the occasion. With these preparations and the excellent program which was given for the entertainment, the ladies of the Flatrock proved their ability as hostesses. Several changes has been made in the program, it being given in the following order:

Piano solo—Mrs. Walter Norris. Hymn—"The Story Must be Told." Scripture reading—Mrs. Bert Heaton.

Prayer—Mrs. John Casady. Hymn—"America." Piano solo—Mrs. Bessie Hoffman. Roll Call.

Report of Christian church conference—Mrs. Alfred Looney. Talk on aims and plans of the society—Mrs. Bert Heaton, president.

Circle of prayer—led by Mrs. Walter Norris.

Discussion led by Mrs. Charles Fisher and Mrs. O. J. Myers.

Quartet—"Press Onward Heirs of Glory"—Miss Beulah Murphy, Mrs. Curtis Geise, Mrs. Herbert Holden and Mrs. Moody Edwards.

Talk on Laymen's conference by the Rev. Moody Edwards.

Recitation—Miss Mariamme Holman.

Hymn—"God be with You Till we Meet Again."

The delicious refreshments were served by the ladies of the March division which includes Mrs. John Heeb, Mrs. Ora Norris, Mrs. Rena Stevens, Mrs. Sarah Smelser, Miss Lola Holden, and Mrs. Martha Looney.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

The royal hospitality of the members of the Uniform Rank was exercised last evening in the beautiful ball with which they entertained their wives and lady friends at the Knights of Pythias hall. A dignity and beauty was added to the affair with the gentlemen in the full military dress and the ladies gayly arrayed in brightly colored evening toilettes. It gave a picture of the most beautiful of all affairs, that of a military ball. As the picturesque company was escorted into the dining hall to the music of a notional air, a huge American flag was unfurled. The soft glow cast from the lights concealed beneath Japanese lanterns disclosed four long tables decorated with a color scheme of green and white and brightened with pretty ferns upon the tables. Four faultless courses comprised the dinner, last of which was ice cream in the Rank colors of red, yellow and blue. Soon after dining, the tables were cleared away and to the strains of music furnished by Mitchell's orchestra, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Trabue led off in the grand march, in which several pretty figures were made. Mr. Trabue is Adjutant General of the Uniform Rank of the United States. A delightful program of dances was enjoyed by the dancers, thanks to the smooth floor, good music, cordial hospitality and congenial partners.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. Ballard of Newcastle. Mr. Ballard and Mr. Nicholson are members of the Rank in Newcastle and aided in the royal reception that was given the local men while there recently.

The committee to whom credit is due for the pleasant evening was composed of John Worthington, Norm Norris and Fred Cochran.

WEAK, AILING CHILD

Made Strong by Delicious Vinol.

Lakeport, N. H.—"Our little girl 8 years of age was in a debilitated, run-down condition and had a stubborn cough so she was weak and ailing all the time. Nothing helped her until we tried Vinol. Then her appetite increased and she is strong and well, and I wish other parents of weak, delicate children would try Vinol."—George A. Collina.

This is because Vinol contains the tissue building, strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron which a weak and run-down system needs. F. B. Johnson & Co., Drugists, Rushville, Ind.

THE IDEAL HUSBAND

You are probably a woman. Few men would pause to read an article headed "The Ideal Husband." Man knows his fellow men too well. Of course it is true that nearly every married woman has at some time in her life claimed to have found the one ideal husband, but not for long. He is not a stable article; he is only a fleeting glimpse.

Shortly after a young married woman declares hers to be the ideal husband he exhibits a tendency to crumble his crackers in his soup or to place a slice of bread in his empty dinner plate and submerge it in gravy. These things "are not done."

While a man is still engaged—held under option, as it were, but not definitely contracted for—he is for a short while considered ideal. However, he just begins to enjoy his perfection when it is discovered by his general manager elect that he rests his knife and fork half on the tablecloth and half on his plate, while they should be draped artistically across his plate midway between meat and potatoes. To save time, probably he also cuts his meat into small pieces before starting to eat it.

He has good reasons for doing as he does, but they do not excuse him. His sort of conduct and perfection simply do not walk hand in hand.

No young couple should be engaged long enough for either one to discover the other's shortcomings. So long as a man and a girl are so mutually mesmerized that the eyes of one never leave the eyes of the other he is perfect, but the moment he allows her glances to stray below his Adam's apple, the moment he loses control, he loses also perfection. She realizes that his knowledge of esthetics was gleaned from an abridged edition; that his tie is not in vogue, that his collar is too loose and too low and therefore too comfortable.

Ah me! I have strayed from my subject—the ideal husband. Let me return to it and proceed.

MRS FERREE DIES.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Frances Ferree, widow of John H. Ferree, who was related here, at the home of her daughter in Indianapolis, where she was spending the winter. Burial took place in Fairmount. Mrs. Ferree was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Mary J. Walton of Sixth street, sister of Mrs. James Wilson and aunt of Rich Wilson. Mrs. Walton was at her bedside when she died.

DOMESTIC BLISS

It takes my wife a long time to read anything. I skim whole pages instantly. She hates to be read aloud to. I love it.

When we travel I always suggest to her in advance the car we shall take. She agrees, but will suddenly change her mind and insist upon taking another one. I grumble to myself and obey. She likes the top of the auto up. I loathe it up. It remains up.

I always praise her golf, no matter how badly she plays. She always deprecates mine, no matter how well I play. When I criticize anything she does I don't say it; I think it. That sometimes makes trouble enough.

I compliment her occasionally before others. She pretends that she doesn't understand why I do it.

When I buy a new suit she will never admit that she admires it until it is worn out. Then she says the next one isn't half so becoming as the last. When she gets a new gown I admire it intensely until it is about time to replace it with another. She never liked any hat that I have ever bought. I like every one of hers—on principle.

I laugh at her when she gets too serious. When I get too serious she scolds me.

I keep her informed about my business only when she asks me. She never asks me, so you know the result.

I tell her a funny story every day. If I have two I keep one for the next day. Sometimes she laughs at them.

She asks me occasionally if I think her hair is as long as it was. I always tell her it is longer.

I hate bridge, dinner parties, dancing and the opera. She respects my opinion and makes me do them all.

She makes out checks and forgets to enter them on the stubs. Every time I catch her in this omission she reminds me of the celebrated occasion when I left the tickets to a large theater party in my other suit.

She always keeps her temper when I lose mine. I keep mine when she loses hers.

I once told her she was thoroughly spoiled. She kissed me and said she knew it.—Life.

Our old friend Rheumatiz is having his inning this year, and a few words of caution from one who knows all about it may not be amiss.

GAIN LAURELS AT HOME AND ABROAD

Fact That Skovgaard, Danish Violinist, Has $13,000 Violin is Quite Incidental.

The New York Metropolitan company which will appear at the Graham Annex auditorium, Friday evening March 10, comes highly recommended, having gained laurels not only at home but abroad.

Skovgaard is a perfect master of his instrument and his audience is involuntarily drawn into a state of perfect harmony with him. He overcame the greatest technical difficulties with ease and the taste and thorough comprehension which characterizes his playing proves that he possesses a complete knowledge of his art.

While the chief interest centers upon the appearance of Skovgaard, there are five other musicians of excellent talent to make their bow: Alice McClung, pianiste; Miss Florence Hawkins, lyric soprano; Clara Freuler, mezzo-soprano; Molly Byerly Wilson, contralto; and Francis W. Cowles, baritone. These are all artists of the very highest type in their respective lines and the program to be rendered by them will be of the greatest variety. There will be arias from your favorite operas, in costume, and folk songs, so dear to the heart of everyone; in fact it will be a program to satisfy all.

At the finale the entire Company

those finer qualities of balance and resource of interpretation which can come in no other way than by steady development of the musician himself in devotion to his inborn and chosen art.

He happily escaped the misfortune of being foisted on the world as an infant prodigy. Instead he has been allowed to follow the vastly wiser course of remaining unknown through the long years of unremitting toil which are essential to the proper development of genius. As a result his work is now no immature and wonderful exhibition of miraculously early endowment, but the balanced well rounded performance of one who has earned the right to play as master of his art. Genius is there; without it no man can be a great musician. But it is genius controlled and made subservient to the will of one who is imbued with the highest traditions of what violin playing ought to be.

16 NATIONS ARE TAKING PART

Second Year of San Diego Exposition Will be Formally Opened on March 18

Several Added Features For This Year Announced—Several New Exhibits in Place

(By United Press.) San Diego, Cal., March 3.—Sixteen nations are participating in the big second year of the San Diego exposition, which will be formally opened by President Davidson on the 18th of this month.

When the 1915 Exposition closed December 31 it had established a world record for expositions by remaining open an entire year. The first day of the new year found the gates still open and President G. A. Davidson announced to a New York's day crowd of 20,000 that a new international exposition would be built on the 1915 success. This will establish a two year record for exposition operation which, it is believed, will stand for many years as a record.

Among the greatest of these exhibits are those of the United States Government, Canada, France, Italy, Brazil, The Netherlands and Germany. The wonderful Canadian display at San Francisco is being installed in the Commerce and Industries building, which will be known in 1916 as the Canadian building.

The United States government is represented by 17,000 square feet of display, housed in three buildings. A thousand U. S. Marines, a battalion of U. S. Infantry, a part of the First U. S. cavalry, and several government bands will be on the grounds before dedication day.

France opened the famous Luxembourg collection of 80 paintings to the public in the Fine Arts building February 12 and other exhibits of the French republic are being installed in the California building.

The Isthmus, the "furlined" joy street, is being completely reorganized and will contain a score of new attractions before March 18. It is planned to change the make-up of attractions each month.

Along with a comprehensive program of special events, a dozen great bands are being engaged for 1916, including Russian, Italian, Philippine and South American. The strolling Spanish singers and dancers which added to the Spanish effect of the architecture, the patios and plazas, have made their re-appearance on the grounds and are to be a daily feature here all year.

An automobile demonstration field where every test to which motors and motor vehicle can be put is an added feature and special event offered here daily promises to be the most sensational ever offered by transportation vehicles. A special effort is being made to have President Woodrow Wilson present at the dedication.

Vote No. 39 on Republican Ballot. A farmer and a renter. Hunt for Sheriff. 30414

Swift's Fertilizers Continue to Make Winners

If you use Swift's Fertilizer and obtained the best yield in the state you would, of course, give our fertilizer the credit that was due it. NOW, if the following year's Champion used Swift's and this performance repeated from year to year, you naturally would begin to think that Swift's Red Steer Brand is a pretty good fertilizer, would you not?

Look at the Record and Decide Yourself.

There can be no better proof of the value of a fertilizer than the records made by those who use it. There must be merit in a fertilizer that produces the results stated below:

Mr. Will Essig, Tipton, Indiana—131 bushels corn per acre. The largest yield of which there is any record in Indiana. Mr. Essig was recently awarded a gold medal at the Panama Exposition. Used SWIFT'S.

Mr. Norris McHenry, Elizabethtown, Ind.—112 bushels per acre. Winner of the Indiana 1914 Men's Five Acre Corn Contest. Used SWIFT'S. In 1915 he was induced to use other than Swift's Fertilizer and got no prize.

Mr. F. R. McHenry, Norris' father—used no fertilizer in 1914 and won no prize, but as his son won the State Championship in 1914 with the aid of Swift's Fertilizer, Mr. McHenry used Swift's in 1915, got 87.3 bushels of ripe corn per acre and won the sweepstakes for men in the Bartholomew County Five Acre Corn Contest.

The 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th prizes for the highest yields of good quality corn in the 1915 Five Acre Corn Contest for men in Bartholomew County, Indiana, all went to users of Swift's Fertilizer. Also in the Boys' One Acre Corn Contest in the same county, the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th prizes went to users of Swift's Fertilizer.

The Ohio 1914 Champion Corn Grower, Arnett Rose, Alger, Ohio—153.9 bushels—used SWIFT'S.

The Ohio 1915 Champion Corn Grower, Dewey Haines, Arcanum, Ohio—154 bushels—used SWIFT'S.

The Indiana 1914 Boy Champion Corn Grower, Roy Friedersdorf, Elizabethtown, Ind.—128.8 bu.—used SWIFT'S.

Gordon Reap, Elizabethtown, Indiana, who was third last year, is County Champion with 105.73 bushels. He also used SWIFT'S this year.

There certainly MUST be something in Swift's Fertilizers that PRODUCES RESULTS. Swift's blood, bone and tankage fertilizers make prize winners.

If YOU do not use Swift's Fertilizers, you are not sure that you are using the best fertilizer obtainable. You want the best—then buy SWIFT'S—the Red Steer Brand.

LYNCH CERTIFIED TO HIS NAME AS P. J.

LYNCH CONSULTED ABOUT IT

The question has been raised concerning the spelling of the name on the local primary election ballot of P. J. Lynch of Newcastle, Republican candidate for the congressional nomination. His name appears on the ballot as "P. J. Lynch" and was certified to as "P. J. Lynch" in the office of the secretary of state, Homer L. Cook, in Indianapolis, as required by the law. The primary state says the names of candidates for president, vice-president, senator, governor, legislative and judicial offices shall be certified to in the office of the secretary of state and candidates for all other offices in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which they are a candidate.

Although the law says the names of candidates shall be placed on the ballot in full, Lynch's name came to the clerk of the court here as "P. J. Lynch" instead of "Patrick J. Lynch." Members of the election board consulted Mr. Lynch before the time expired for placing the names on the ballots, but he said he had always signed his name "P. J. Lynch" and that it might as well be left that way.

HIGH PRAISE FOR INDIAN TROOPS

Destination of 45,000 Men, Transferred, Unknown.

MAY LAND IN MESOPOTAMIA

General Townshend's Army in That Region in a Critical Situation, and British Public Believes the Men Will Be Used to Re-enforce That Front. Message From King.

There is much speculation in military circles as to the destination of the Indian army corps which was recently transferred from the Flanders front. The possibilities of their new field of action touch upon three points—Salonika, Egypt and Mesopotamia. The latter is deemed to be the more probable field for them, and it is believed that they may be sent to re-enforce General Townshend's army, now apparently in a critical situation on the Tigris.

Before the departure of these 45,000 men for "a new field of action," after having fought the Germans for more than a year on the Anglo-French front, the Prince of Wales delivered to them a message from the king, thanking them for their gallant services. The king's message was:

"More than a year ago I summoned you from India to fight for the safety of my empire and the honor of my pledged word on the battlefields of Belgium and France. The confidence which I then expressed in your sense of duty, your courage and your chivalry you since have nobly justified.

"I now require your services in another field of action, but before you leave France I send my dear, gallant son, the Prince of Wales, who has shared with my armies the danger and hardships of the campaign, to thank you in my name for your services and to express to you my satisfaction.

Indian Troops Praised.
"British Indian comrades in arms, yours has been fellowship in toils, hardships, courage and endurance, often against great odds, in deeds nobly done in days of ever memorable conflict. In the warfare waged under new conditions and in peculiarly trying circumstances you have worthily upheld the honor of the empire and the great traditions of my army in India.

"I have followed your fortunes with the deepest interest and watched your gallant actions with pride and satisfaction, and I mourn with you the loss of many gallant officers and men. Let it be your consolation, as their pride, that they freely gave their lives in a just cause for the honor of their sovereign and the safety of my empire. They died gallant soldiers, and I shall ever hold their sacrifice in grateful remembrance.

"You leave France with just pride in honorable deeds already achieved and with my assured confidence that your proved valor and experience will contribute to further victories in the new fields of action to which you go.

"I pray God to bless and guard you and bring you back safely when final victory is won, each to his own home, there to be welcomed with honor among his own people."

Early in September, 1914, the British government admitted that Indian troops were in France. One cabinet official called them "the unknown factor" which altered the situation at the front. At that time there were 30,000 Indian soldiers here—two divisions of infantry and a brigade of cavalry. Later more arrived, and in November twelve transports arrived at Marseilles, bringing British-Indian cavalry, who were anxious to join the British infantry against the Germans.

A dispatch from Delhi, via London, on Jan. 13, 1915, said that Lord Harding, viceroy of Egypt, had stated at the opening of the vice regal council that 200,000 Indian troops were at the front, distributed in France, Egypt, East Africa and along the Persian gulf.

Republican Candidate from Orange Township for Commissioner Southern District of Rush County, Primary
March 7, 1916

As it is impossible for me to see everyone personally I take this method of introducing myself to the voters of Rush County, Indiana. I am a farmer, always a staunch and loyal Republican; forty-five years of age, married and with a family. I was trustee for Orange Township for six years, and was elected in 1908. I WAS THE FIRST REPUBLICAN TRUSTEE OF ORANGE TOWNSHIP IN TWENTY YEARS PREVIOUS TO THAT TIME. Said township now has a Democratic Trustee. Have served as administrator for various estates in Rush County. I was Secretary and Treasurer of the Building Committee of the Moscow Christian Church built in 1910, was secretary and treasurer of the Moscow Gas Company for 12 years, and if nominated and elected will give Rush County an economical business administration. I am in favor of good roads and lower taxes.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOOTHER

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

All black-tread Tires are NOT made—
—of "BAREFOOT" Rubber

THIS is to tell the People, that Goodrich "BARE-FOOT-RUBBER" Value lies not in its COLOR but in its composition. It lies in the especially devised Texture, Flexibility, Cling-quality, Stretch, Lightness and Resilience of that "Barefoot Rubber" which, through years of Research, WE developed to match the marvellous Flexibility, Resilience and Power-conservation of our two-layer-Cord "Siltertown" Tires. Color alone would have been little help in making "Siltertown" Treads stand-up in the tremendous ENDURANCE Tests which the 100-Mile-per-hour-Races of 1915 provided. And Color alone, —Black, White, Red, or Gray—can do little for the Consumer who buys a "Me-too" Black-Tread Tire, of imitated make, on the assumption that all Black-Tread Tires are likely to be made of same materials.

THE marvellous "Barefoot Rubber" now used in Goodrich FABRIC Tires (as well as in Goodrich "Siltertowns") is black only because we elected that color, primarily for distinction and association with our SILVERTOWN CORD Tires. When, therefore, the usual crop of "flattering" Imitations sprouts upon the Market DON'T assume that OTHER Black-Tread Tires have in them the "BARE-FOOT-RUBBER" which made the enormous ENDURANCE of Siltertown Cord Tires possible in the 90 to 108 Mile-per-hour Races of 1914-15. No Tires on the Market, Size for Size, and Type for Type, are LARGER than Goodrich, and none more generously good, at any price. "Barefoot Rubber" is now made into Goodrich FABRIC Tires, —Goodrich "Siltertown" Tires, —Goodrich Inner Tubes, —Goodrich Truck Tires, —Goodrich Motor Cycle Tires, —Goodrich Bicycle Tires, —and Goodrich Rubber Boots, Overshoes, Soles and Heels. Get a sliver of it from your nearest Goodrich Dealer or Branch. Note (by comparison), the reasonably-low Fair-List prices at which these best-possible Fabric Tires are being sold, on a BUSINESS basis.

Tooth Loose? Watch out for Pyorrhea!

When you find a tooth that gives back and forth, even just a little, see your dentist at once. He will find conditions which you might overlook. He will find a gum recession, even though slight, where the gums have pulled away from the teeth. And he will tell you that you have the dread disease pyorrhea.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senoreco Tooth Paste. Senoreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

Senoreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senoreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesome freshness.

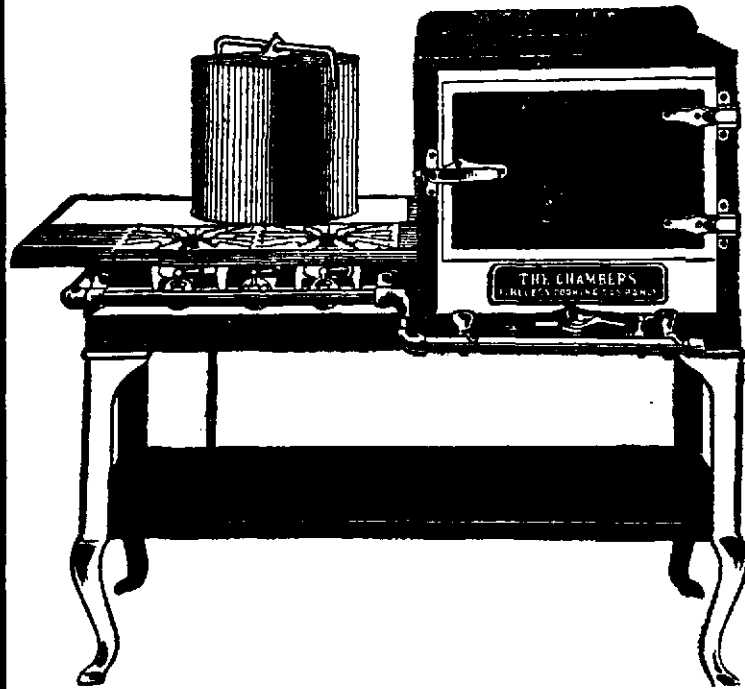

Start the Senoreco treatment today. Senoreco is sold in a tube with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senoreco at the drug store, or by mail, 4c a tube, or 25c a tube, with a tube and folder. Address The Senoreco Company, 307 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Things Look Dark For Drug Store Blondes Now As Price Of Peroxide Keeps Advancing

Things look as dark as the prospects of a defeated candidate the day after election. The price of peroxide has gone up, is going up, and, in all probability, will keep on going up. Just put this terrible state of affairs down as another one of the horrors of war. It's to blame. Some of the pharmaceutical constituents of peroxide come from the war zone—and there ain't none any more.

The peroxide crop is another that has been ruined by bursting shells and shrapnel, and the poor peasant peroxide pickers are either in the army or have left their peroxide crops and gone hastily away from there.

The situation is a serious one for volunteer blondes. Some of the burlesque beauties are in a panic. Can any one imagine a "Bouffant Bouquet of Blonde Beauties" with their locks beginning to show a kind of greenish-yellowish tinge, due to a famine in peroxide?

Ham sandwiches, room rent, rouge, and fur trimmings all have gone up in price, and what's a poor honest workin' gal to do when they kate the peroxide like that? Huh? Ain't it awful? It is. A dame keeps on touchin' up her hair for a couple years, and she has to keep it up good and steady, or, believe me, Myrtle, it turns as green around the edges as an oyster that has strayed too far from home. Then along comes Fate, disguised as a peroxide shortage—and there you are. It's just crool, crool, crool!

There will be considerable rooting around done in medicine closets and other receptacles, as time goes on, in the hope of resurrecting a bottle or two in which a few tea-spoonsfuls of peroxide may still be lurking. The price, according to one wholesale drug store, has gone up 200 per cent in the last two months.

But the brunette—she should shed a tear over the light that failed! It will be a great day for the brunette, when all the imitation blondes, who have long got all the attention, begin to show sort of celery-colored! And as for the real, regular blonde—she who does not get it out of a bottle—she will be a feminine orchid, the rarest of all plants, and will be able to command fabulous prices on the stage as "One of the Four Original Blondes in Captivity."

Oh, well—there's always things to darken one's hair, anyway, and better be dark haired—at least, until the war is over—than to have hair that looks like a brass plate that needs shining. Please pass the sage and walnut stain!

CHAPLIN FINALLY ALLOWED TO DIRECT OWN SCENARIOS

No American Picture Producer Understood His Peculiar Style of Comedy Well Enough to Work Out the Stuff Correctly.

(This is a continuation of Charlie Chaplin's life story. It was written by Harry C. Carr, who recently achieved fame as a war correspondent for the Los Angeles Times. No contribution to "movie" literature has created so much interest among film "fans" as this simple, straightforward account of the life history of the world's most famous comedian.—Editor.)

(This story is copyrighted by Photoplay Publishing Co. All rights reserved.)

CHAPTER V.
The end of it was that Chaplin was finally allowed to direct his own scenarios. No American picture director understood his peculiar style of comedy well enough to work out the stuff. In another chapter I will tell about Chaplin's work and his methods as a director.
Chaplin's first big hit as a director of his own work was "Dough and Dynamite." This was started as a part of the scenario afterward known as the "Pants of Love." In his rather simple way of directing without any scenario, Chaplin and Mr. Conklin began working up a play in which both he and Conklin were in love with the landlady of a boarding house and stuck batpins into each other through a curtain to interrupt one another's courtship. They decided that they both ought to be workmen of some kind and decided upon being bakers. As part of the play they worked up a scene in a bake shop. This turned out to be so funny that they finally changed the whole idea and made two different scenarios.
As a director-actor at the Keystone, Chaplin had the reputation of being the most generous star in the movie business. Every comedian was allowed to grab all the laughs he could get.

His work began making a tremendous impression. Everyone began talking about the new funny man. People who never went to the movies before were drawn by the accounts of the new comedian.
Naturally, the other movie companies took notice, and Chaplin got several big offers. One from the Essanay was so big that he did not feel justified in refusing. When his contract expired with the Keystone, he changed companies. He went with the understanding that he was to have full swing in his work; direct all his own scenarios and do pretty much as he pleased.

The first of the Essanay work was done in Chicago. His first Essanay film was "His New Job." After that he put on a two-reeler, "His Night Out." Chaplin then insisted on moving back to California. The picture conditions didn't suit him in the middle West. On returning to the coast, he went to the Essanay studio at Niles.
In a separate chapter there will be an account of his adventures at this rural studio. He produced "The Tramp" at Niles. This is regarded in some ways as the most remarkable step forward ever made in moving-picture comedy.

By this time a perfect storm of fame had struck Chaplin. To tell the truth, it seemed to scare more than anything else. He used to say to his intimate friends: "I can't understand all this stuff. I am just a little nickel comedian trying to make people laugh. They act as though I were the king of England." Chaplin even to this day is much alarmed over being so famous. He says his reputation can't last.
But he began to suffer the penalties of the great. He was asked to speak at banquets; to lead parades; to referee prize fights. When the baseball season opened, it was announced that Chaplin would throw the first ball.
Charlie's Chicago Censor.

Charlie was pursued like a wounded hare by all kinds of people with all kinds of business propositions. If half the life insurance agents who were on his trail could be gathered into an army, there wouldn't be any danger of a war with Germany. Real estate agents wanted him to buy homes. Investors wanted him to take stock in their discoveries. About a million people wrote him letters. Many of them were mesh letters. One young lady in Chicago undertook the job of censoring all his work. Every day of her life she wrote Chaplin a letter, commenting critically on some of his latest films. Sometimes she complimented them; sometimes she roasted them unmercifully.

Chaplin has about as much business system as a chicken. When his friends came to see him at his hotel they found him sitting helplessly behind a pile of letters. Finally some of his friends prevailed on him to hire a secretary. Wherefore a severe young man with glasses now opens Charlie's mail letters.

One sort of pest scared Chaplin to death. This was the auto agent. They wanted him to buy their cars; to be photographed in their cars; and to write endorsements of their cars. But Charlie was adamant. He wouldn't listen to any of them. He told them he had an aversion to cars on principle and when he retired he was going to have an old white horse and buggy and a ranch. The truth is, Charlie had once been bitten by the automobile bug.

While he was with the Keystone, Chaplin fell for the blandishments of an auto agent and came out one day nervously driving a runabout. He had some weird experiences with that car. He never could learn how the thing worked. He knew how it started, but he never could remember—at least in times of emergency—what you did when you wanted the thing to stop.

Auto Advice at $75 Per Lesson.

One day while he was parading the boulevards with his vehicle, Chaplin came to the intersection of two crowded streets. The traffic cop majestically gave the signal for the car to stop. Charlie reached for the thingamajig and pulled the wrong lever. The car bounded blithely forward. The cop waved his club and that was all he did before the auto struck him amidships and mopped up the floor with him. They picked up the fragments of the officer of the law. They also picked up Chaplin and took him to the police station, where they advised him to learn how to manage his car and charged him $75 for the advice.

Another time, Charlie was driving in through the big front gate at the Keystone and got too near one of the posts. He had been used to sailing small boats. When a small boat gets too near the wharf the thing to do is to drop the tiller and fend off by pushing against the wharf. Charlie thought this ought to apply equally well to a car. So when he saw he was going to bump the gate, he dropped the steering wheel and tried to push off from the post. The results were sensational and startling. Another time, Charlie's car was on the side of a hill. It started to roll down and Chaplin tried to stop it by grabbing the hind wheels. Results equally startling and sensational.

When Chaplin discovered that new tires for his motor cost $75 each, his soul called "Enough," and he returned to street cars. Since then he has been a mighty poor prospect for an auto agent.
